ANNAPOLIS, July 18.

The SPEECH of his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland, to both Houses of Assembly, on Wednesday, the 17th of July, 1754.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly,

THE Chearfulness with which you have attended every Business, relative to the common Interest of these his Majesty's Colonies, obviates every Doubt that I might entertain of any Exception being taken to my calling you together again so soon: And I flatter myself, that the present dangerous Situation of Affairs, will not only evince the Necessity of it, at this Time, but engage you, without Hesitation, fully to comply with the Directions contained in the Earl of Holdernesse's Letter.

The Designs of the French must now be evident to every one: They have openly, in Violation of all Treaties, invaded his Majesty's Territories, and committed the most violent Acts of Hostility, by attacking and entirely defeating the Virginian Troops under Col. Washington.

In this Emergency, the Hopes and Expectations of our Neighbours, whom, in Duty, Honour, and Interest, we are engaged to support and defend, are fixed upon us for Assistance; and what must the World think of our Conduct, or what Calamities may we not expect, if, from an unseasonable Parsimony, we coldly look on, while they are cut to Pieces? The boundless Ambition of the common Enemy, and the cruel Rage of their Savage Allies, now upon our Borders, flushed with Victory, indispensably require a vigorous and immediate Exertion of all our Powers, to check their Progress.

The Indians, who are our Friends, likewise claim our Assistance: While their Warriors are in the Field with our Troops, their Women and Children are sent to us, to be protected and supported: This is the greatest Demonstration they can give of the Confidence they place in us. Nor can I doubt, but that at this critical Period, when the French are employing every Artifice to alienate their Affections from us, you will embrace so fair an Opportunity of firmly attaching them to our Interest, by taking Care to have their Wives and Children kindly and hospitably treated, while they are obliged to stay with us, and implore our Protection.

As our Settlements on the Frontiers, must be the first exposed to the Inroads of the Enemy, I have ordered a Supply of Ammunition to Frederick County; and, with the Advice of his Lordship's Council of State, issued a Proclamation, for the Militia to be put in the best Posture of Defence, that they may be prepared to act, in case of Necessity: And, by the same Advice, have, at the earnest Request of Col. Innes, Commander in Chief of the North-Carolina Forces, granted him a supply of Arms, which, considering the present Urgency of Affairs, could not have been denied.

The Money in the Treasurer's Hands, for the purchasing of Arms and Ammunition, being near exhausted, I must recommend to you, in the strongest Manner, the raising a sufficient Fund for that Purpose, so necessary at this Time, for the Defence of the Province: And must likewise observe, that the present State of the Militia, requires your most serious Attention.

Gentlemen,

There never was a Conjuncture, in which your Unanimity, Vigour, and Dispatch, were more necessary than now: And, as I depend upon the Prudence of your Resolutions, I am persuaded, you will make such Provisions adequate to the present Emergency, as will best express your Zeal for his Majesty's Service, the Security and Welfare of this Province, and the Support of the Common Cause.

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland,

The humble ADDRESS of the Upper House of ASSEMBLY.

May it please your Excellency,

WE return you our sincere Thanks for the Speech you was pleased to make to both Houses: And as we are very sensible of the dangerous Situation of Affairs at this Time, relative to the common Interest of his Majesty's Colonies on this Continent, we shall readily concur with every proper Measure, that may be proposed to us, in order to comply with the Directions of the Letter from the Earl of Holdernesse; and, according to the utmost of our Abilities, endeavour to answer the Hopes and Expectations of our Neighbours, in contributing our Assistance to check the Progress of our common Enemies, whose ambitious Designs have urged them to invade his Majesty's Territories, and commit such Acts of Hostility, as are an open Violation of the most solemn Treaties.

July 18. 1754. B. TASKER, President.

The Governor's ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Upper House of Assembly,

I RETURN you sincere Thanks for your obliging Address: And your Sentiments being so agreeable to my own, it gives me the strongest Assurance of your ready Concurrence, in every proper Measure, that the Necessity of Affairs really require.

HORATIO SHARPE.

To his Excellency HORATIO SHARPE, Esq; Governor and Commander in Chief in and over the Province of Maryland,

The humble ADDRESS of the House of DELEGATES.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Delegates of the Freemen of Maryland, in Assembly convened, return your Excellency our hearty Thanks for the Concern you have been pleased to express at calling us so often together, as well as every other Instance of your Regard for the Good of this Province.

Although it is very inconvenient to us to be absent from our respective Businesses at this Season of the Year, yet we shall chearfully attend the publick Service: And immediately take under our most serious Consideration, the Matters recommended in your Excellency's Speech; and endeavour to make such Provision upon the present Occasion, as may be most conducive to his Majesty's Service, and the Safety and Welfare of our Country.

July 18, 1754. P. HAMMOND, Speaker.

The Governor's ANSWER.

Gentlemen of the Lower House of Assembly,

I CANNOT without Injustice forbear expressing to you the real Satisfaction I have received from your kind Address; and doubt not but your Resolutions, on this important Occasion, will be such as may best express your Loyalty, and merit the Approbation of every honest and impartial Man.

HORATIO SHARPE.

Thursday, July 18, 1754, Post Meridiem, The House having taken into Consideration that Part of the Governor's Speech, which recommends a Provision to be made for His Majesty's Service towards the Assistance of the Virginians, now attack'd and invaded by the French;

Resolved, That the Sum of Six Thousand Pounds, current Money, be raised, to be applied for that Purpose.

July 25. This Afternoon his Excellency the Governor put an End to the Session (after passing An Act for his Majesty's Service, and some continuing Acts) with the following SPEECH.

Gentlemen of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly,

BEFORE putting an End to this Session, I cannot help expressing my Satisfaction with the Confidence you repose in me as to the Disposal of the Money granted at this Time, which I shall take Care to have employed in the Manner that may be most conducive to the Publick Good. I should have been glad you had taken under your Consideration the other Matters recommended to you at the Opening of this Session; but as most of you must be desirous of attending your home Affairs at this Season, I have, with the Advice of his Lordship's Council of State, thought fit to prorogue this Assembly to the last Tuesday in November next; and you are to take Notice you are prorogued to that Day accordingly.

By the beforementioned Act, the Assembly have granted Six Thousand Pounds towards the Assistance of the Virginians, and for the Relief and Support of the Wives and Children of our Indian Allies, who shall put themselves under the Protection of this Government; the Whole to be disposed of as his Excellency our Governor shall think proper. The Act directs, that all Ordinary Licenses taken out at the August Courts this present Year, shall pay Twenty Shillings each, over and above what was formerly paid.

We have just now received the Virginia Gazette of July 19, wherein is the following Account.

Williamsburgh, July 19. On Wednesday last arrived in Town, Colonel Washington, and Capt. James Maccay, who gave the following Account to his Honour the Governor, of the late Action between them and the French, at the Great Meadows in the Western Parts of this Dominion.

The third of this instant July, about 9 a Clock, we received Intelligence that the French, having been reinforced with 700 Recruits, had left Monongahela, and were in full March with 900 Men to attack us. Upon this, as our Numbers were so unequal (our Force not exceeding 300*) we prepared for our Defence in the best Manner we could, by throwing up a small Intrenchment, which we had not Time to perfect, before our Centinel gave Notice, about* 11 a Clock, of their Approach, by firing his Piece, which he did at the Enemy, and as we learned afterwards killed three of their Men, on which they began to fire upon us, at about 600 Yards Distance, but without any Effect: We immediately called all our Men to their Arms, and drew up in Order before our Trenches; but as we looked upon this distant Fire of the Enemy only as an Artifice to intimidate, or draw our Fire from us, we waited their nearer Approach before we returned their Salute. They then advanced in a very irregular Manner to another Point of Woods, about 60 Yards off, and from thence made a second Discharge; upon which, finding they had no Intention of attacking us in the open Field, we retired into our Trenches, and still reserved our Fire; as we expected from their great Superiority of Numbers, that they would endeavour to force our Trenches; but finding they did not seem to intend this neither, the Colonel gave Orders to fire, which was done with great Alacrity and Undauntedness. We continued this unequal Fight, with an Enemy sheltered behind the Trees, ourselves without Shelter, in Trenches full of Water, in a settled Rain, and the Enemy galling us on all Sides incessantly from the Woods, till 8 a Clock at Night, when the French called to parley: From the great Improbability that such a vastly superior Force, and possessed of such an Advantage, would offer a Parley first, we suspected a Deceit, and therefore refused to consent that they should come among us; on which, they desired us to send an Officer to them, and engaged their Parole for his Safety; we then sent Capt. Van Braam, and Mr. Peyronee, to receive their Proposals, which they did, and about Midnight we agreed that each Side should retire without Molestation, they back to their Fort, at Monongahela, and we to Wills's Creek: That we should march away with all the Honours of War, and with all our Stores, Effects and Baggage. Accordingly the next Morning, with our Drums beating, and our Colours flying, we began our March in good Order, with our Stores, &c. in Convoy; but we were interrupted by the Arrival of a Reinforcement of One Hundred Indians, among the French, who were hardly restrained from attacking us, and did us considerable Damage, by pilfering our Baggage. We then proceeded, but soon found it necessary to leave our Baggage and Stores; the great Scarcity of our Provisions obliged us to use the utmost Expedition, and having neither Waggons nor Horses to transport them. The Enemy had deprived us of all our Creatures, by killing, in the Beginning of the Engagement, our Horses, Cattle, and every living Thing they could, even to the very Dogs. The Number of the killed on our Side was 30, and 70 wounded; among the former was Lieutenant Mercier, of Capt. Maccay's Independent Company; a Gentleman of true military Worth, and whose Bravery would not permit him to retire, tho' dangerously wounded, 'til a second Shot disabled him, and a third put an End to his Life, as he was carrying to the Surgeon. Our Men behaved with singular Intrepidity, and we determined not to ask for Quarters, but with our Bayonets screwed, to sell our Lives as dearly as possible we could. From the Numbers of the Enemy, and our Situation, we could not hope for Victory; and from the Character of those we had to encounter, we expected no Mercy, but on Terms that we positively resolved not to submit to. The Number killed and wounded of the Enemy is uncertain, but by the Information given by some Dutch in their Service to their Countrymen in ours, we learn that it amounted to above 300; and we are induced to believe it must be very considerable, by their being busy all Night in burying their Dead, and yet many remained the next Day; and their wounded we know was considerable, by one of our Men, who had been made Prisoner by them after signing the Articles, and who, on his Return, told us, that he saw great Numbers much wounded and carried off upon Litters. We were also told by some of their Indians, after the Action, that the French had an Officer of distinguishable Rank killed. Some considerable Blow they must have received, to induce them to call first for a Parley, knowing, as they perfectly did, the Circumstances we were in. Col. Washington, and Capt. Maccay, left Capt. Clark at Winchester, on the 11*th last, and his Men were not then arrived there. Thus have a few brave Men been exposed to be butchered, by the Negligence of those who, in Obedience to their Sovereign's Command, ought to have been with them many Months before; and it is evidently certain, that had the Companies from New-York been as expeditious as Capt. Maccay's from South Carolina, our Camp would have been secure from the Insults of the French, and our brave men still alive to serve their King and Country. Surely this will remove the Infatuation that seems to have prevailed too much among our Neighbours, and inforce a late ingenious Emblem, well worthy of their Attention and Consideration.*

By Capt. Jefferies, arrived at New-York from Holland, but last from Dover in nine Weeks, we have the following Advices.

LISBON, April 9.

IT is loooked upon as a Thing out of Doubt that Donna Maria, their Majesty's fourth Daughter, who is almost eight Years old, is contracted to the Duke of Calabria, who is about ten Months younger. It is very strongly reported, that the Marriage formerly mentioned between Don Lewis of Spain and the Princess of Beira will certainly take Effect, and that much sooner than perhaps the World imagines. What adds Credit to this is, that there are Surveyors actually employed to make the Limits between Galicia and Castile, the former being the Price proposed to induce our Court to consent to this Marriage.

Tortona, April 26. We hear, that at the Instances of the Inhabitants of San Remo, the Emperor has taken that City and its Territory under his Protection, as a Fief holding of the Empire. A Report generally prevails in Publick, that this Fief may probably become subject to the King of Sardinia, in Consequence of certain Arrangements respecting the Affairs of Italy.

Hague, May 13. We have Abundance of Letters here which give an Account of the Action in the East-Indies, which happened the Latter End of August, and that it was follow'd by a second as brisk as the former.

LONDON.

May 14. Private Letters from Paris, take Notice, that the Plan of M. Dupleix, their Governor General in the East-Indies, is to make himself Master of the Coromandel Coast; that they are so intent upon this Project, that their India Trade is much neglected, several of the Company's Vessels being converted into fighting Ships.

We hear that 150 Busses will be employed this Year in the Service of the Free British Fishery, besides Jaggers, &c.

There is a Report from Genoa, that Troops have been sent for from the French Court in order to assist them in the present Juncture of Affairs. And, 'tis said, that notwithstanding French Troops were on the Borders of Piedmont and Provence, ready to pass into Italy, the Court of Turin seems not to take any Notice thereof.

The Letters by the last Ship arrived from the East-Indies, bring an Account of the Death of Capt. Chase, who had the Command of a Company in that Service, and had served in the Marines here in the last War. This young Gentleman (the younger Brother of a good Family in Buckinghamshire) being an Officer whom Major Lawrence knew he could confide in, was left by the Major with a small Party in a Village called Trividi; which, as soon as the Major retired with the main Army, was surrounded and attacked by the whole French Forces. Capt. Chase had the Courage to make a Sally on them in the Night, in which he lost two Officers, and several Indian Soldiers. The next Day the French summoned him to surrender, which he refusing they batter'd his little Fortification in Breach, and his Indian Soldiers mutinying and refusing to defend it, they were all taken Prisoners. The Captain was carried to Pondicherry, where he survived his Misfortune but a few Days; leaving behind him the Character of a brave and experienced Officer, though under 28 Years of Age.

May 16. By a private Letter from a certain great City in Italy, we are assured, that the Court of Rome is exceedingly struck with the Declarations of the Grand Master of Malta, and have resolved to remonstrate in the strongest Terms, to the Court of Naples, the great Inconveniences that must necessarily follow, in case the Knights should abandon the Island of Malta, and purchase that of Corsica.

The last Letters from Vienna acquaint us, that tho' the Imperial Court is earnestly and equally desirous to preserve the Tranquility of Italy, and the Empire, yet she judges it not at all inconsistent with this Intention to arm in order to prevent any Surprize; and that this is the only Reason for marching a considerable Corps of Troops into Lombardy, and causing one much more considerable to encamp in Bohemia.

Our Correspondents at Paris intimate, that in the same Proportion Civil Politicks grow more and more obscure, the Clouds of Ecclesiastical Darkness break up; the Clergy having submitted that the Parliament shall be restored, and all Things relating to Schism adjusted.

Two Men of War of 20 Guns will soon be put on the Stocks at Chatham; and the Royal Anne, now building at Woolwich, will be launched this Summer.

May 20. Our last Advices from Gibraltar mention, that a very rich French Felucca had been lately taken by a Barbary Corsair, and that a Letter has been received at Cadiz from Teneriff, giving Intelligence of, and describing a Spanish Ship that had been carried off from thence, with a Design of going a Pirating to the West-Indies.

Some private Letters from Paris give a dreadful Account of the Ravages made by an epidemical Sickness in that Capital.

We hear that some Officers belonging to the French Army, having lately enlisted some Persons in Ireland and Scotland, for the Service of the French King, were obliged to a hasty Departure from both Kingdoms, leaving behind them a considerable Number of Men they had obtained for the above Service.

Some Englishmen at Toulon having talked too freely concerning the Armaments in that Port, and the State of Affairs between the two Nations, Intimation was given them to speak with more Reserve, or quit the Place. And this it was that gave Rise to the Report that all the English settled at Toulon were ordered to leave it in a limited Time.

BOSTON, July 22.

WHEREAS Rumours have been spread in these Parts, that War has been declared in England against France, by which Means the Fishermen belonging to this Province have been greatly terrified, and many of them have left the Fishing Ground without finishing their Voyage, to their great Loss, and the publick Damage, and many Persons on the Frontiers have gone into Garrison, to the Hurt of their Husbandry and Business:

THESE are therefore, by express Order from his Excellency, to inform the Publick, that strict Inquiry hath been made into those Reports, but no Foundation of them can be found; and that upon the 18th Instant arrived a Vessel at New-Casco from Liverpool, in seven Weeks Passage, the Master whereof being carefully examined, has affirmed, that no Declaration of War was made when he left England, that he heard of, and that he did not understand that there was any Probability of a speedy War.

J. WILLARD, Secretary.

Tuesday last, the Hon. Thomas Hutchinson, Esq, one of the Commissioners on the Part of this Province at the late Treaty at Albany, arrived in Town; and we hear that all the Indians had left that City in good Temper, but that a smaller Number appeared at the Interview, than had usually done on the like Occasion. That the Commissioners from the several Governments were unanimously of Opinion, that an Union of the Colonies was absolutely necessary, in order to defeat the destructive Schemes of the French.----That a Representation of the State of the British Interest on this Continent, with Relation to the French and Indians, has been drawn up and approved of; and that a Plan of an Union has likewise been projected, and will, by the Commissioners, be laid before their respective Constituents. All the Commissioners left Albany the 12th Instant.

By Letters from Halifax we have Advice, that 60 Labourers are engaged there in clearing and levelling a Piece of Land for a Battery, opposite Governor's Island Point, on Dartmouth Side, where they intend to plant twenty Guns.

NEW-YORK, July 29.

Thursday last the Rev. Mr. George Whitefield arrived here from South Carolina: He has preached every Day since to large and crowed Assemblies. He sets out To-morrow for Philadelphia.

Capt. Jeffries informs us, that about ten Days before he left Holland, a Snow of and from Rhode-Island, was cast away a little to the Northward of the Texel; Part of the Cargo, and all the Crew except the Mate, were saved.

A Sloop from New-London, Kelly, Master, bound to Carolina was spoke with in Lat. 38 9, as was likewise in the same Latitude a Snow from Virginia bound to Scotland; the former had been out eight Days, and the latter Five, all well.

Since our last two Persons were married together in this City whose Ages made upwards of 120 Years, the Man being turn'd of 80, and the Woman of 40.

We have the following under the London Head of May 14.

"Upon Complaints made to the Court that the Governor of Canada had lately made Encroachments in Defiance of the Britis Crown's Right of Sovereignty in the Province of Virginia, the King has charged the Earl of Albemarle, his Ambassador at the French Court, to make Representations on this Subject, and demand, that Orders be sent to that Governor, to obviate the said Causes of Complaint, in order to prevent such Courses as the Inhabitants of Virginia will think themselves authorised to take in case they don't obtain the Satisfaction and Security they have demanded."

Capt. Westlade, in 12 Days from Halifax, advises us, that his Majesty's Ship Success, of 20 Guns, Capt. Legge, and Snow Baltimore Capt. Shutland, were both to sail from thence hither in a few Days after him, and may be hourly expected. The Day after Capt. Westlade left Halifax, he spoke with a Snow from Cadiz, bound for Marblehead.

PHILADELPHIA, August 1.

Extract of a Letter from London to a Gentleman here,

May 25, 1754.

"Capt. Hamilton talks of sailing next Week: I believe he will have the Baggage of your new Governor, ROBERT HUNTER MORRIS, Esq; who is expected to proceed for your Province in a few Days, on board the Mermaid Man of War."

Since our last the Captains Joy and Read arrived here from London, having been eleven Weeks on their Passage.

Capt. Lowther, from St. Eustatia, on the 16th of last Month spoke with a Sloop from South-Carolina to Antigua; and the same Day with another from Jamaica for Rhode-Island.

Capt. Blair, in eight Weeks from Lisbon, informs us, that Capt. Read, in a Ship for Boston, sailed in Company with him, and that a Snow was ready to sail for Marblehead: That on the 8th ult. he spoke with a Sloop from Boston to Jamaica; on the 15th with Capt. Hudson from Rhode-Island to Barbados; and on the 17th with Capt. Bevansey, from New-York to Jamaica. Capt. Bevansey told him he had spoke with a Bermudian Sloop a short Time before he met with him, bound in here from Bermuda.

Capt. Dowers, from Jamaica, advises, that Capt. Jerrard sailed a Week before him for this Place; and that Capt. Edwards was to sail in about a Week after him.

Capt. Davis, in the Schooner Endeavour, from Maryland for Barbados, having sprung a Leak at Sea, put in here on Thursday last.

On Saturday Night last a Fire broke out in the upper Part of a House in Walnut-street, by which the Roof was entirely consumed. An old Woman was burnt to Death in it, who it is supposed was in Liquor, and thereby had been the Cause of the Fire.

Tuesday next the General Assembly of this Province meets here.

N. B. The Majority of the Lunaticks taken in had been many Years disorder'd, and their Diseases become too habitual to admit of Relief; others, whose Cases were recent, and might probably have been cured, being put in at private Expence, were so hastily taken away by their Friends, that sufficient Time was not allowed for their Recovery: The Managers have therefore, as well for the Sake of the Afflicted, as the Reputation of the Hospital, resolved to admit none hereafter, who are not allowed to remain twelve Months in the House, if not cured sooner, or judged by the Physicians to be incurable.

The Choice of the Sick to be supported on the publick Stock, was confined to such only whose Cases could not be healed properly in their respective Habitations, but required the extraordinary Conveniences and Advantages of an Hospital; amongst these, several, for want of this noble Charity in Time, had languished too long to receive any other Advantage from it than the Relief of their Poverty, and the Satisfaction of being convinced they had every Chance for Recovery that Care and Tenderness could afford.

From the foregoing Account it appears, That from the Tenth of February, 1752, to the Twenty-seventh of April, 1754, which is but about two Years and two Months, sixty Persons, afflicted with various Distempers, have been cured, besides many others that have received considerable Relief, both In and Out-patients; and if so much Good has been done by so small a Number of Contributors, how much more then may reasonably be expected from the liberal Aid and Assistance of the Well-disposed who hitherto have not join'd in the Undertaking? Experience has more and more convinced all concerned, of the great Usefulness of this Charity.-----The careful Attendance afforded to the Sick Poor; the Neatness, Cleanness, and Regularity of Diet with which they are kept in the Hospital, are found to contribute to their Recovery much sooner than their own Manner of Living at Home, and render the Physick they take more effectual. Here they have the best Advice, and the best Medicines, which are Helps to Recovery, that many in better Circumstances in different Parts of the Province do not enjoy. In short, there is scarce any one Kind of doing Good, which is not hereby in some Manner promoted; for not only the Sick are visited and relieved, but the Stranger is taken in, the Ignorant instructed, and the Bad reclaimed *; present Wants are supplied, and the future prevented, and (by easing poor Families of the Burthen of supporting and curing their Sick) it is also the Means of feeding the Hungry, and clothing the Naked.

It is therefore hoped, that by additional Benefactions from pious and benevolent Persons (an Account of which will be published yearly according to Law) this Charity may be farther extended, so as to embrace with open Arms all the Sick Poor that need the Relief it affords, and that the Managers will not, in Time to come, be under a Necessity, from the Narrowness of the Funds, of refusing Admittance to any proper Object. "It is hoped that a deaf Ear will not be turn'd to the Cries of those, in whose Favour both Religion and Humanity strongly plead; who are recommended by the great Pattern of human Conduct; who in Sickness are lost to Society; who contribute greatly to the Instruction of those Youth to whom the Lives of High and Low may hereafter be entrusted, whose Prayers are to be sent up for their Deliverers; but that all will assist to render the Funds of this Hospital answerable to the Necessities of the Poor.-----Incapacity of contributing can by none be pleaded; the Rich only indeed can bestow large Sums, but most can spare something yearly, which collected from many, might make a handsome Revenue, by which great Numbers of distress'd Objects can be taken Care of, and relieved, many of whom may possibly one Day make a Part of the blessed Company above, when a Cup of cold Water given to them will not be unrewarded. Let People but reflect what unnecessary Expences they have been at in any Year for vain Superfluities or Entertainments, for mere Amusements or Diversions, or perhaps in vicious Debauches; and then let them put the Question to themselves, Whether they do not wish that Money had been given in the Way now proposed? If this Reflection has Influence on their future Conduct, the Poor will be provided for. The least Mite may be here given without a Blush; for what People would not chuse to give the Treasurer, or any Manager, the Trouble to receive, may be put into their Charity-boxes, or into the Box which is fixed in the Entry of the Hospital: Where Money cannot so well be spared, Provision or Linen, Blankets, and any Kind of Furniture, Herbs and Roots for the Kitchen, or the Apothecary, or other Necessaries of a Family, may be delivered to the Matron or Governess; old Linen, and even Rags, for Lint, Bandages, and other chyrurgical Dressings, are acceptable, being scarce to be purchas'd sometimes for Money; and tho' they are of little or no Value to those who have them, they are absolutely necessary in such an Hospital, and will be thankfully received."

* The kind Visits and Conversation of some serious Persons, and the pious Books that have been left in the Hospital, recommended to the Perusal of the Patients, together with the exact Regularity kept in the House, have been attended with a Blessing in these Respects.

VENICE, April 12.

A FEW Days ago a young Man being insulted in the Street by a Sailor, resolved to be instantly revenged of him, and for that Purpose drew a Knife out of his Pocket, and pursued him with great Passion. The Sailor took Refuge in a Church, imagining he should be perfectly safe there, but the young Man pursued him to the Foot of the Altar, and there gave him several mortal Stabs. The Church was full of People, but they were so shocked at the Sight, that the Murderer escaped without so much as being pursued. Sentence was immediately passed upon him to have his Hand and his Head cut off whenever he is taken, and the Government has promised a Reward of 1000 Florins to whoever shall kill him within this State, and 2000 to any who shall kill him elsewhere; besides which Rewards, whoever obtains them, will be entitled to pardon a Person condemned to be banished.

Madrid, April 9. We have received Advice that the Intrepid, a very rich Ship belonging to the Merchants at St. Malo, was lost in her Way Home from Martineco, as she was endeavouring to put into Vigo, upon the Coast of Gallicia, and that only eight Men were saved out of the whole Crew. Several Vessels laden with Corn from Naples and Sicily are lately arrived at Barcelona, Carthagena, Malaga, and other Ports of this Kingdom.

Paris, April 19. They write from Langonet in Britany, that as a Child of thirteen or fourteen Years of Age was going to Mass, attended by another Girl, a Wolf suddenly seized the Child, and tore it in a shocking Manner. The Girl had the Courage to endeavour to disengage the Wolf, by which she was bit in several Places, and, finding all her Endeavours ineffectual, she ran away in order to procure other Assistance. Several Persons came, but were frightened at the Fierceness of the Beast, which by that Time had almost torn the Child to Pieces, and only one Henry le Crops dared attack the Wolf, and broke a Stick about his Head; upon which the Beast, without letting go his Hold, tore the Man's Hand, but he, not being in the least discouraged, took up the Wolf in his Arms, and held him fast for some Time, during which the Child was carried away, but died the next Day. Le Crops not being able to hold the Wolf long, was obliged to let him go, when, having lost his Prey, he appear'd more fierce than ever. The Girl, though slightly wounded, died mad about a Month after the Child. Le Crops died last month of the Consequences of the Bites he received from the Wolf, though the Accident happened the 27th of December last. He was raving mad for 24 Hours before he expired, during which Time he imagined he saw the Wolf at the Foot of the Bed coming to devour him. In this Condition he would drink Wine without Difficulty, but, whenever any Water was offered to him, he trembled, and fell into Convulsions.

April 22. The Slowness with which, according to the Letters from Milan, the Repairs of the Ducal Palace are carried on, gives Reason to think that the Duke of Modena's Return to that City is not so near as it was thought to be when his Serene Highness returned to Modena. Some conjecture that in the Engagements he has contracted with the Court of Vienna Things are not as they were imagined to be; or else that some new Circumstances have made an Alteration in the System laid down by the contracting Parties. In fact, the Umbrage which was taken by several Powers of Europe, and particularly of Italy, at the late Treaty, being still unremoved, notwithstanding all the Pains employed for that Purpose by the Empress Queen, and the Duke, some of those Powers are taking the same Precautions as if they were at the Eve of a War. They are not only compleating their Troops; they are augmenting them; and offer extraordinary Gratifications to such as will enlist. The Kings of Sardinia and Naples are the two Powers who have been the most busy in taking these Precautions; and the Forces of the first will soon be on the same Footing, as in the Time of the late War. His Majesty, however, without explaining himself fully, has declared, that in case of new Troubles in Italy, he will observe an exact Neutrality; which is not altogether consistent with the Measures he is taking to put his Forces on a respectable Footing. The Republick of Genoa has not yet declared herself, under Pretence that domestick Troubles will not suffer her to intermeddle in foreign Affairs.

Naples, April 10. In Imitation of divers Lords of this Kingdom, who have raised Regiments for the King's Service, the Prince of Cuto, and the Prince of Campofranco, have also obtained his Majesty's Licence to levy each a Regiment of Horse.

A Report is current here, that some Difficulties of a serious Nature, respecting Trade and Navigation, have arisen between our Court and a Potentate, whose Name is not yet divulged.

LONDON, April 25.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris, dated April 19.

"It is apprehended, from a Variety of Circumstances, that some Matter of great Importance is on the Carpet in the North, on Account of the frequent Conferences which the Ministers of certain Crowns have here, and the many Couriers they have lately dispatched to their respective Courts, tho' no-Body pretends to guess at the Motive of all this political Bustle. We are at a Loss to guess whether the Councils of the Court of Madrid excite the Motions that are visible in the Kingdom of Naples, or whether the Apprehensions of that Court have made an Impression on the Ministers at Madrid; but certain it is, that some Scene of Eclat is like to pass this Summer in Italy, in which it is possible we may take some Share. Here at Home Things roll on in the old Channel, notwithstanding many Predictions of the contrary. There was not long ago a Report as if the Secretary had at Length quitted the Part of the Clergy; but at present that Fact appears doubtful; or, to speak more ingenuously, is looked upon as false, and attributed wholly to the good Opinion his Friends have of that Minister's Understanding, and their Willingness from thence to believe that he was at Length undeceived.

"Tho' the Terrors of the Bastile have not frighted such of the Members of the Chatelet as are confined in it out of their Principles, yet the Apprehensions of sharing their Fate has driven many of their Brethren from their Habitations; and, if the Persecution of the Long-Robe does not quickly cease any other Way, it must very soon End for Want of Objects. The conscientious Part of the Clergy appear to be as deeply affected with the Apprehensions of this as any of the Laity, and make no Scruple of owning, that the highest Zealots for the Church are such as would be least in Danger of burning for Christianity; so that it is hard to understand what it is they aim at, by that Uniformity which they are labouring to establish, at the Hazard of all that honest Men and Christians hold sacred."

May 4.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated April 23.

"There is no more Talk of renewing the Conferences at Brussels, which have been suspended near a Year. The English and Dutch Ministers, who, the Publick Papers have so often told us, were on the Point of setting out for that City, appear to be in no more Hurry, than if there were neither Barrier nor Tariff to be settled. It is nevertheless certain that the Powers concerned have not lost Sight of these two Objects. There is even Room to think that the Affair of the Barrier, which has been for some Time under Consideration at one Court after another, is far advanced, and perhaps already settled.

"The two Millions which the Empress Queen is negociating in the Province of Holland at Four per Cent. and for which she mortgages the Duties on the Exports and the Imports in Flanders, will be easily found, as the States of the Province readily consented to the Raising of it; which Money will be allotted for repairing the Places of the Barrier and other Fortresses in the Austrian Low Countries. And in order to defray the Charges of keeping up the Fortresses afterwards, and maintaining taining the Garrisons, her Imperial Majesty is negociating in the several Provinces of Flanders a Fund that will produce annually 1,400,000 Dutch Florins. This Negociation is so far advanced, that there is only the Consent of one Province wanting."

May 7.

Extract of a Letter from Dublin, dated April 20.

" Yesterday the Speaker of the House of Commons lost his Places of Chancellor of the Exchequer, and one of the Lords Justices; Arthur Hill, Esq; succeeds him in the former, and the Earl of Besborough in the latter.---Thomas Charter, Esq; Master of the Rolls, is succeeded by Lord Chief Justice Singleton.---Col. Dilkes's Place of Quarter Master General is given to Lord Forbes. It is expected there will be several other Removals To-day; but every Body is in good Spirits, as they hope there may be Alterations again before long."

Our Letters from Bologna in Italy insinuate, that in Case a certain Body of Troops enter Italy on one Side, another Body of Troops will be also permitted a Passage, by a Prince who is justly considered as holding the Balance in that Part of Europe. A certain Republick has delayed her Market so long, that it is become very doubtful whether the People may not make a great Effort to expel her Troops, in order to have the Selling of their own Island. Some Folks doubt whether the Fleet intended for Algiers may not call at Corsica.

May 9. They write from Hanover, that considerable Sums have been lately brought into that Electorate for Horses for the Service of France, the House of Austria, and two or three Italian Princes: And that more Money is brought in daily to purchase Horses for the Prussian and Saxon Services.

His Majesty's Forces in Nova-Scotia, and others of his Plantations abroad, are ordered to be reinforced: Recruits are raising, and those already rais'd, will, in a few Days, be shipp'd for that Purpose.

May 14.

Extract of a Letter from Major Stringer Lawrence, to the Court of Directors of the East-India Company, dated at the Camp near Trichenopoly, the 15*th of September,* 1753 (which it is supposed should be the 25*th of September) received by the Delaware, May* 7, 1754.

" Since my Letter of the 14th Instant, Capt. Ridge joined me with a Detachment of above 200 Europeans. This Addition of Force made me resolved to attack the Enemy, as the Monsoon approached, and their Situation was such, that they cut off our Provisions, which must have ended in the Loss of Trichenopoly: Accordingly, on the 19th, I made a Motion in the Night towards the Left of the Enemies Camp, for they had Possession of two large Rocks, about a Mile distant from each other, and I found it necessary to gain one of them. The whole Day of the 20th was spent in cannonading; and the better to conceal our Design, I had ordered out an eighteen Pounder from the Fort, that they might think we had no other View than that of disturbing them in their Camp with our Shot. This lulled them into a Security, and at 4 a Clock in the Morning of the 21st, our Europeans being disposed in three Lines, with the Seapoys on our Flanks, and the Horse in our Rear, we attacked the Rock on our Left, call'd the Golden Rock, and gained it without any Loss, the Enemy retiring after a faint Resistance, and leaving behind them two Pieces of Cannon. This Earnest of Success encouraged the Men greatly, and determined me to push on the main Body; so, that no Time might be lost, I disabled the two Guns, and advanced towards the Sugar-loaf Rock just as the Day began to break. The Enemy were drawn up close to the Rock, and had fortified themselves with Breast-works; so it was necessary to gain their black Camp, that we might fall upon them in the Rear: This was effected with little Trouble, and our Soldiers marched through a constant Fire from nine Pieces of Cannon, attacked a Line of Men, which greatly outnumbered themselves, and in ten or twelve Minutes drove the Enemy out of their Lines.

They however rallied, and made some faint Resistance afterwards, supported by the Morattas, who rode up very desperately: But as these could not sustain a galling Fire, which fell upon them from all Quarters, they at length run away, and left us compleat Masters of the Field of Battle, their whole Camp, Baggage and Ammunition, and ten Pieces of Cannon. The Remains of their Army retreated, some towards Altoora and Syringham, some towards Tondamons's Country, and some towards Tanjour. The Polligars and Seapoys bring in Prisoners every Minute. The Action lasted near two Hours. We took eight Officers, and 100 Soldiers, besides the Killed, which might be about 60 more. The Morattas saved the rest, and prevented a Pursuit, as they were vastly superior to Monage, our Tanjour Friend, in Numbers. On our Part, we had six Officers wounded, and several Men killed and wounded, as you will see by the inclosed Return. I received a slight Wound in the Arm with a Musket Ball; but I thank God it does not prevent me from keeping the Field, and continuing to do my Duty."

May 22. The King has been pleased to appoint Isaac Townshend, Esq; to be Governor of Greenwich Hospital, in the Room of Lord Archibald Hamilton deceased.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Hon. Edward Hay, Esq; the Office of His Majesty's Council General in Portugal.

The King has been pleased to appoint William Nash, Esq; to be His Majesty's Agent and Consul General in the Islands of Madeiras.

Burrington Goldworthy, Esq; to be His Majesty's Consul at Cadiz.

And John Dick, Esq; to be His Majesty's Consul at Leghorn.

Some Letters from Poland advise, that the Grand Seignior lay at the Point of Death.

Charles Town, South-Carolina, July 18.

The Schooner Two Friends, of New-England, John Burgess Master, bound from this Port for London, founder'd in her Passage; but the Captain and Crew sav'd themselves in their Boat, and met with a Vessel at Sea that took them up.

Last Saturday put in here to water, the Sloop Two Brothers, of and from New York, bound for Jamaica, John Dunscomb Master.

BOSTON, July 29.

We hear that His Majesty's Ship Mermaid, appointed on this Station, came out with the Captains Comrin and Lewis, and may be hourly expected.

By Letters from Cushenoc, on Kennebeck River, dated the 18th of this Instant, we are informed, that General Winslow had erected several Block-houses and Watch-boxes there:---That they were busy in building a Number of Battoes, which would be finished in two or three Days, and that upon the Arrival of Col. Fry, who was hourly expected with a Reinforcement of Men, and a good Quantity of Stores, the General intended to set out for Treconick with 500 Men, and a Fleet of 30 Boats, to build a strong Fort there:---That the Men were in good Health (notwithstanding their hard Service) not having so much as one sick among them.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Jamaica, to his Friend in Boston, dated Kingston, June 15, 1754.

" We are now to acquaint you, that there is an Account come in a Vessel that touched here from the Havanna, of a very considerable Force having sail'd from thence with a Resolution to root out all the English at the Bay, and to make a Settlement of their own: The Particulars are as follow.

On the twelfth of April, Don Juan Elanos, in a 24 Gun Ship, in Company with a large Xebeck, both fitted with disciplined Soldiers, sailed from the Havanna for the Key Mugar, the Place of Rendezvous, where they had appointed to meet one Don Noverette, the present Governor of Campeachy, with 20 Sail of Vessels, such as Brigs, Schooners, Sloops, &c. They also expected to be joined by a considerable Body from Rio Dulce, so that they might make in the whole two Thousand Men from Key Mugar, and to proceed to the Bay of Honduras, with a Determination to extirpate all the Logwood Cutters, and to make a Settlement of their own; and from thence, they are ordered to go to the Musqueto Shore, and do the same there.

NEW-YORK, August 5.

We hear from several Parts in New-Jersey, that there has been lately the greatest Struggles in electing Representatives, in some of the Counties, that ever were known: In Middlesex County, they were four whole Days, and 694 Freeholders polled, when the Honourable Samuel Nevil, Esq; with John Wetherill, Esq; were returned duly elected, tho' set up on opposite Sides. In Monmouth County, the Election began on Monday last: The Candidates were Robert Lawrence, Samuel Holmes, John Taylor, and John Anderson, Esquires, when after three Days, the two first were declared duly elected. In Sommerset were six Candidates; the Return not yet known: And in Hunterdon four; and, by the Post, we hear, after four Days polling, two new Members were elected. In Essex and Bergen, are both new Members, without much Opposition.

Saturday last Capt. Vardil arrived here in 28 Days from Surinam, and acquaints us, that he sailed from thence in Company with the Captains Hopkins and Johnston, the former for R. Island, and the latter for New-London: He left the following Vessels at Surinam, viz. Malcom from Halifax; Smith from Boston; Goddard, Hawxey, Topham, Nichols, Awl, and Benjamin and William Wanton, from R. Island, Low from Philadelphia, and a Ship from London, bound for Philadelphia also.

Yesterday Capt. Sawyer arrived here from St. Kitts, and advises, that about 30 Leagues from the Land, on Thursday last, he spoke with Capt. Badger, of Philadelphia, bound for Jamaica.

PHILADELPHIA, August 8.

Capt. England, from Barbados, advises, that Capt. Miller, for New-London, was to sail a few Days after him: And that on the Coast he spoke with a Snow belonging to Glasgow, bound in to Virginia, from the Isle of May.

Captain Edwards, from Jamaica, informs us, that Capt. Riddle, of and for this Port, would be ready to sail in a few Days after he left the Island.

Captain Read, from London, spoke with the Ship Edward, Dolton, from Jamaica for London, off of Bermuda, all well on board.

We hear from Dover, that at a Court of Oyer and Terminer lately held there, one Duffet was tried for the Murder of John Brown, of which being found Guilty, he received Sentence of Death.

ARRIVALS.

At BARCELONA. The Mary, Taylor, from Lisbon.

At OPORTO. The Betsey, Dreson; Anne, Sibbald, and Port Packet, M'Carty, from Philadelphia.

At BARBADOS. The Captains Arthur, Cotton, and Calvert, all from Ditto.

At St. AUGUSTINE. The Polly, Fenton; and the St. Augustine, Leggit, both from New-York.

To the Printers of the PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Gentlemen,

You will oblige many of your Readers by inserting the Inclosed, Part of what was delivered by the Freeholders of the County of Hunterdon, in West-New-Jersey, to their new Representatives, into the Hands of, and read by, the Sheriff, at the Close of the Poll, in Amwell.

To Messieurs JOSEPH YARD, and PETER MEDAH,

Gentlemen,

THE highest Approbation of your Integrity and Abilities, has just now been shewn you, by the general Voice of your County.

The Sense you must have of so general a Suffrage, naturally implies our Confidence of your Acquaintance with the English Constitution (of which we are an Epitome) and the Expectance we have of your proper Exertion and Inforcement of all its invaluable Privileges, more immediately that of frequent choosing our own Representatives.------And that you will act in that Character by Principle, and from a Perswasion, that those you have the Honour to represent are Freemen, tenacious of their Properties.---This, Gentlemen, we think we have a Right to remind you of, at so critical a Juncture, when the unhappy Situation of all our Northern Colonies in America, under the Allegiance of our most gracious Sovereign King GEORGE, claims your first Attention.

Our All is at Stake; and calls loudly on you to shew your Duty to your God, to the best of Kings, to your Constituents, to yourselves, to your Posterity.------Secure to us and them, Peace, Commerce, and of course Prosperity; and, with your whole Influence, endeavour to procure such a Bill for the Purpose, as may be for the Honour of a New-Jersey Assembly to pass.

The Militia Bill is incumbered with such Difficulties, that no Person of Repute or Character scarcely can do his Duty under it; ----But the Entanglements are obvious, and the Remedy is easy. To enable the Province to act and defray the Expences (which a near, cruel, and enterprizing Neighbour, the French, involves us in) your Sollicitude to obtain a Money-Bill (the most easy to your Constituents, and the Province in general) cannot be forgot.

You'll remember, Gentlemen, that your Determinations may possibly determine our Properties:------You will therefore, in all your Debates, exclude personal Pique and Resentment.----Let a rational and steady Adherence to Truth, stripp'd of all late Obstinacy, and other unjustifiable Considerations, be your Care; private Interest seldom has, in those Cases, a Connection with the Publick.-------The Province never wanted a Junction of Hearts and Hands more than at present.----Therefore, Render unto Cæsar the Things that are Cæsar's, and conduct yourselves agreeable to the Advice, Wishes and Inclinations of your CONSTITUENTS.

Tbctf.

To the Freeholders, and others, electors of the county of Newcastle, upon Delaware,

Gentlemen,

AS I purpose to be a candidate for the sheriff's office in said county, at the ensuing election, I take this method (pursuant to a practice in a neighbouring province) to sollicit your votes at said election for the said office; your favour herein shall be gratefully acknowledged by your assured friend, and very humble servant,

THOMAS M'KEAN.

JUST imported in the brigantine Lark, James Read, master, from London, A parcel of likely, healthy servant men; among whom are black-smiths, stay-makers, taylors, weavers, bakers, clothiers, barbers, butchers, farmers and gardiners, whose times are to be disposed of by WILLIAM GRIFFITTS, in Second-street, between Spruce and Pine-streets, or by captain JAMES READ, on board the said brigantine, lying at Edgar's wharff.

Virginia, May 10, 1754.

By Order of the GOVERNOR and COUNCIL.

THE method of taking up lands in this colony, and the easy terms on which they are held of the King, not being well known to the inhabitants of the northern provinces, may be the reason that so few of those people, tho' much straitened for good lands, travel hither in search of a fine soil, and a greater extent of country; and therefore the publishing the method and terms on which they are granted here, may be of use to promote the settlement and cultivation of the finest lands (perhaps in the world) that lie to the westward of the Allegheny mountains, along the several branches of the Missisippi: With that view, this authentick state of the rules in taking up and patenting lands in this government, are offered to the publick.

The Expences on a large tract of land being less in proportion than on a smaller, the calculation is here made on a tract of 1000 acres, which may be looked upon as a moderate quantity.

Whoever inclines to take up any quantity of land, not exceeding 400 acres, may enter for the same with the surveyor of the county in which the land lies, who can furnish rights for the same; but if a larger quantity is wanted, he must petition the governor and council: For which petition, and the order of council, the clerk of that board has a fee of - - - - cur. money. £0 10 9

For entering the order of council in the auditor's office, and a certificate thereof, - - 0 5 9

For twenty rights, at Five Shillings sterling, each, or Six Shillings and Three-pence currency, is - 6 5 0

Each right entitles the bearer to fifty acres of his Majesty's land, as the consideration for which it is granted, being certificates of so much paid in for that end.

Upon producing the order of council, and these rights to the surveyor of the county in which the land lies, he is obliged to survey (as soon as prior entries or orders will permit) for which his fee is 500 lb. of tobacco, payable beyond the mountains at Three Farthings per lb. - - 1 11 3

After the survey is finished, the party is to return the plot of the land, with the rights, to the secretary's office, in the general court next following, and pay the fee to the secretary for making out the patent on parchment, and recording it in his office. 0 10 6

And also to the governor, for the seal, and his signing it, - - - - 1 1 6

So the whole charge for 1000 acres is about £8 4 0 sterling, or in Virginia currency, being £5 per oz. gold, and 6*s.* 8*d.* per oz. silver, is. £10 4 9

If the survey contains above 1000 acres, the surveyor's fee is 30 lb. of tobacco for every 100 acres more; and excepting this and the right money, the charge is the same on every patent above 400 acres; but that quantity, or under, may be had without the fee to the auditor, and that to the clerk of the council. The patentee holds his land in fee simple, to him and his heirs for ever, from the date of his patent, upon paying yearly the easy quitrent to his majesty, of One Shilling sterling, for every 50 acres; and making in three years time an easy cultivation on the land.

And for a further encouragement to settle on the waters of Missisippi, the general assembly have (last November) enacted, " That whereas a considerable number of persons, as well his majesty's natural born subjects, as foreign protestants, are willing to come into this colony, with their families and effects, and settle on the lands near the said waters, if properly encouraged: It is therefore enacted, that all persons, being protestants, who shall settle and reside on any lands situated to the westward of the Alegheny ridge, shall be exempted from the payment of all publick, county and parish levies, for the term of fifteen years next following."

And for a further encouragement to foreign protestants, naturalization is made very easy and cheap to them, and they are allowed all the indulgences of the act of toleration here.

N. WALTHOE, Cl. Con.

Pequea, Auguſt 5, 1754.

PUrſuant to an act of Aſſociation, made the 23d day of June, 1753, the members of the ſaid ſociety are hereby deſired to meet in Sadſbury, at the houſe of Mr. Robert Sproule, on the 31ſt of this inſtant, at ten a clock in the forenoon preciſely.

THOMAS LUCAS, Clerk.

THIS is to give notice to all perſons indebted to Emanuel Joſiah, and Samuel Carpenter (without exception of perſons) upwards of three months, that they diſcharge their reſpective debts before the firſt of September next, otherwiſe they may expect to be proceeded againſt as the law directs: And all perſons that have any demands on them are deſired to bring in their accounts, that they may be ſettled and paid.

Lancaſter, Auguſt 5, 1754.

THREE POUNDS Reward.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, living in Little Britain township, Lancaſter county, an Engliſh ſervant man, named Thomas Hall, about 5 feet 8 inches high, well-ſet, round faced, full eyed, of a black complexion, and his hair cut off: Had on when he went away, A good felt hat, dark colour'd cloth jacket, with a ſtriped linſey one under it, check ſhirt, two pair of trowſers, one pair check, and the other tow linen, old loom'd ſtockings, and very old ſhoes: He has been uſed to the ſea, and may poſſibly endeavour to paſs for a ſailor. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant, ſo as his maſter may have him again, ſhall have the above reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by THOMAS GRUBB. *

ABSENTED from the ſervice of Peter Ten Eick, living upon Rariton river, in the Jerſeys, a Dutch hir'd ſervant man, nam'd John Engle, of middle ſtature, well ſet, red faced, and ſpeaks bad Engliſh; he pretends to be a miller: His clothes cannot be deſcrib'd, tho' it is ſuppoſed they are of a lightiſh colour. He took with him from the ſaid Peter Ten Eick, on Sunday, the 28th of July, a black gelding, with a ſtar on his forehead, about 14 hands high, and branded on the near buttock DM in a piece. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid man in any goal, ſhall have Three Pounds reward; and if the horſe is taken up, and deliver'd to John Lambricht, at the White-horſe, in Cheſter county, to Henry Pawling, in Philadelphia county, or to ſaid Peter Ten Eick, there will be Forty Shillings paid by either of them.

He took with him a pair of large ſilver ſhoe and knee buckles.

To be SOLD,

A TRACT of land, in the county of Auguſta, in Virginia, near the Court-houſe, containing 562 acres, near 100 of which is rich choice meadow, well water'd, and the high land very good, and well timber'd. There is a good mill thereon, lately reſtored, on a good ſtream. It was lately the property of Major John Hawkings. Whoever inclines to purchaſe, may know the terms, by applying to Thomas Lewis, ſurveyor, or to Mr. John Madiſon, Clerk of the ſaid county, who are impower'd to act for

Tbc. 3 m. ANTHONY STROTHER.

STRAY'D or ſtolen, but rather thought to be ſtolen, from John M'Micken, of Point No Point, on the ſixth day of July laſt, a dark bay mare, a natural pacer, ſix years old, about 13 hands high, a few white hairs in her forehead, has a ſmall neck, the hair hangs to the right-ſide, is low in Fleſh, no ſhoes on, very apt to ſhift in her pace if drove faſt, and has with her a likely year old mare colt, a bright bay, and paced naturally till of late, but is now more apt to trot than pace, and ſtill ſucks. Whoever brings the ſaid mares to the ſubſcriber, or to Samuel Haſtings, ſhip carpenter in Front-ſtreet, Philadelphia, ſhall have Twenty Shillings reward; and if ſtolen, and the thief taken, ſo that he may be brought to juſtice, Forty Shillings, and reaſonable charges, paid by me

JOHN M'MICKEN.

RUN away on the 31ſt day of the Seventh Month, called July, from James Hicklin, of Chriſtiana hundred, New-Caſtle county, A native Iriſh ſervant girl, named Mary Neal, ſpeaks pretty good Engliſh, and at times ſpeaks loud and faſt, and may be perceived to ſtutter a little, of a ruddy complexion, pretty full breaſted, thick black buſhy hair, chunky and well-ſet, ſhort waiſted, and pretty thick: Took with her when ſhe went away, A new linſey petticoat, ſtriped purple and yellow, and a blue and white ſtrip'd petticoat, no gown, bare footed when ſhe went away, ſuppoſed to be about 20 years of age. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant Girl, ſo as her maſter may have her again, ſhall have Forty Shillings reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by

JAMES HICKLIN.

N. B. Perhaps ſhe may paſs by the name of O'Neal, but in her preſent adventure ſhe is call'd Mary Neil or Neal, and may probably change her name and apparel.

NOTICE is hereby given, that if Samuel Cox (who came from Byfield, in Northamptonſhire, in Old England, about three or four years ago, and went to live with one Thomas Meſſer, in Cheſter county, Pennſylvania) is alive, and applies to David Strattan, in Eveſham townſhip, Burlington county, in the Jerſeys, he may hear of ſomething greatly to his ſatisfaction: Or if he is dead, the perſon that informs ſaid Strattan thereof, or ſends word to the New-Printing-Office, in Philadelphia, ſhall be reaſonably ſatisfied for their trouble by me DAVID STRATTAN. ¶

To be SOLD,

A LIKELY Negroe woman; ſhe can waſh, iron and cook, and do houſe-work very well.

ALL perſons indebted to the eſtate of Jonas Kealer, late of Moyamenſing townſhip, deceaſed, are deſir'd to make ſpeedy payment: And thoſe who have any demands againſt ſaid eſtate, are deſired to bring in their accounts, that they may be adjuſted by Eve Keller, Henry Kepley, and Adam Weaver, Execut.

BY virtue of a writ to me directed, will be expoſed to ſale by publick vendue, about two a clock on the 23d day of this inſtant (Auguſt) on the premiſes, a meſſuage and plantation, ſituated in Lower Merion townſhip, beginning at a corner of William Thomas's land; thence ſouth-ſouth-eaſt 158 perches, to a corner; thence weſt-north-weſt 102 perches, to a corner; thence north-north weſt 158 perches, to a corner; and thence by the ſaid William Thomas's land 102 perches, to the place of beginning, containing 100 acres, late the eſtate of Rees Thomas, taken in execution by

RUN away from William M'Knight, of Upper Freehold, in the county of Monmouth, a High Dutch ſervant man, nam'd Baltus Spackholtz, of middle ſtature, about 25 years of age, ſpeaks bad Engliſh, pretends to be a miller, and has ſhort black hair: Had on when he went away a half worn felt hat, white linen ſhirt, blue coat, with red lining, blue veſt, light brown breeches, and black ſtockings. Whoever takes up ſaid ſervant, and ſecures him, ſo that his maſter may have him again, ſhall have Three Pounds reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by

WILLIAM M'KNIGHT.

AS publick ſeminaries of learning not only tend to promote the private welfare of the communities in which they are founded, but to advance the honour, the reputation, and the happineſs of a country in general; it is hoped, that all thoſe who would encourage the progreſs of the liberal ſciences, and are well-wiſhers to the propagation of chriſtianity in theſe parts of the world, will chearfully become adventurers here; and the more freely, conſidering the above ſcheme is ſo well calculated for the benefit of the proprietors of tickets, as not to have two blanks to a prize. Publick notice will be given of the preciſe time of putting the tickets into the boxes, that ſuch adventurers as are inclined, may be preſent when the ſame ſhall be done. The drawing to commence on the ſecond of September next, or ſooner if full, at the town of Stamford in Connecticut, under the inſpection of two juſtices of peace of the colony of Connecticut, and of two perſons who ſhall be appointed by the truſtees of the college of New-Jerſey. The publick will have fourteen days notice of the time of drawing. The managers are ſworn to the faithful diſcharge of the truſt repoſed in them, and have alſo given ſecurity for the ſame. The prizes will be publiſhed in the New-York and Pennſylvania Gazettes, and the money paid to the poſſeſſors of benefit tickets, as ſoon as the drawing is finiſhed. Tickets are to be had at the dwelling-houſes of Mr. John Lloyd, Ephraim Boſtwick, Eſq; and Dr. Nathaniel Hubbard, in the town of Stamford, in Connecticut, who are appointed managers. Tickets will alſo be ſold by Mr. David Vanhorne, in New-York; Samuel Woodruff, Eſq; in Elizabeth-town; Mr. Sergeant, treaſurer of the college of New-Jerſey, in Newark; John Stockton, Eſq; in Prince-town; the Rev. Mr. Cowell, and meſſieurs Reed and Furman, in Trenton; Mr. Charles Hoff, junior, in Kingwood; Mr. John Imley, in Bordentown; and meſſieurs George Spafford, Andrew Reed, William Grant, John Sayre, Andrew Hodge, William Henry, Hugh M'Cullough, and Samuel Hazard, in Philadelphia. The prizes will be paid by thoſe gentlemen who ſhall have diſpoſed of the numbers drawing ſuch prizes.

To be SOLD by

JOSEPH SAUNDERS,

At his houſe, wherein Iſrael Pemberton, ſenior, lately lived, next door to James Pemberton, and near the Queen's Head, in Water-ſtreet,

SUNDRY ſorts of dye ſtuffs, as madder, ground red-wood, fuſtick, galls, log-wood and brazilletto, indigo, allom, copperas, alſo brimſtone, Engliſh glue, bar lead, ſhot, gunpowder, neat powder flaſks, ſundry ſorts of nails, ſteel, A C. No. 3. long and ſhort pipes, cutlary; ozenbrigs, garlix, twilled baging, blankets and rugs, flannel, ſhaloons, ſilk, linen and cotton handkerchiefs, ell-wide perſians, muſlins, calicoes, cotton and linen checks, buckrams, hat crapes, and Ruſſia ſheeting; writing paper of ſeveral ſorts; ſale twine; alſo Jamaica ſpirit, Weſt-India and Philadelphia rum, loaf and muſcovado ſugar, coffee, tea and chocolate, rice, pepper, alſpice, ginger, cinnamon, nutmegs, mace and cloves, ſalt petre, ſweet oil, and ſundry other goods.

N. B. The INSURANCE-OFFICE for SHIPPING is kept by him as uſual.

Notice is hereby given, That

EDWARD BROADFIELD,

Is removed from Bordentown to Trenton,

AND continues to pickle ſturgeon in the ſafeſt and beſt manner, and with more conveniency for the getting the fiſh alive out of the river, than at Bordentown; and perſons who did favour him with their cuſtom laſt year, may depend upon being equally or better ſerved now, being more in his power for the reaſons aforeſaid: And all perſons who ſhall buy to export abroad, if care be taken that the kegs loſe not their pickle, will be warranted to keep good in the hotteſt climate for two years; and all perſons who ſhall have occaſion for preſent uſe, and home conſumption, when they open the kegs, will firſt draw off the pickle below the bung, then take out the head, put the bung in tight, harden the hoops on, put the pickle in, and cloth on the keg, with the head upon that, with a ſmall weight thereon to keep the air out, and you may preſerve the fiſh as long as you pleaſe. The ſaid fiſh are to be ſold by no other perſons than George Spafford, in Water-ſtreet, the corner of Cheſtnut-ſtreet, or ſaid Broadfield, at Trenton.

N. B. Whereas one William Pancoaſt, of Bordentown, the laſt ſeaſon, having my brand at his houſe, branded a parcel of kegs with the ſaid brand, which has given me great reaſon to believe it was done with an intent of impoſing his fiſh for mine, therefore I have thought proper to inform the publick, that they might not ſuffer by ſuch a deceit; and if the ſaid William Pancoaſt ſhall be prov'd to offer any of the ſaid kegs, in my name, to ſale, or any other perſon for him, will be proſecuted as the law directs.

BORDEN-TOWN STAGE is carried on as formerly, viz.

JOSEPH BORDEN's Stage-boat, JOSEPH CANNIDA Maſter, attends at the Crooked billet wharff every Monday and Tueſday; and his Shallop, CHARLES TAYLOR Maſter, at the ſame wharff, every Friday and Saturday; the Stage-waggon, kept by Joſeph Richards, attends the ſame boats; the Stage-boat at Amboy, kept by James Wells, late from Philadelphia. Our adverſaries have been pleaſed to advertiſe that they can give people greater diſpatch than we can, to that we appeal to fact: As we were the promoters of this ſcheme, as yet of no advantage to any but the publick, and as we take pay for 13 miles leſs land-carriage than the Burlington people do, we hope all well-minded People will lay their commands upon their humble Servants,

N. B. The Majority of the Lunaticks taken in had been many Years diſorder'd, and their Diſeaſes become too habitual to admit of Relief; others, whoſe Caſes were recent, and might probably have been cured, being put in at private Expence, were ſo haſtily taken away by their Friends, that ſufficient Time was not allowed for their Recovery: The Managers have therefore, as well for the Sake of the Afflicted, as the Reputation of the Hoſpital, reſolved to admit none hereafter, who are not allowed to remain twelve Months in the Houſe, if not cured ſooner, or judged by the Phyſicians to be incurable.

The Choice of the Sick to be ſupported on the publick Stock, was confined to ſuch only whoſe Caſes could not be healed properly in their reſpective Habitations, but required the extraordinary Conveniences and Advantages of an Hoſpital; amongſt theſe, ſeveral, for want of this noble Charity in Time, had languiſhed too long to receive any other Advantage from it than the Relief of their Poverty, and the Satisfaction of being convinced they had every Chance for Recovery that Care and Tenderneſs could afford.

From the foregoing Account it appears, That from the Tenth of February, 1752, to the Twenty-ſeventh of April, 1754, which is but about two Years and two Months, ſixty Perſons, afflicted with various Diſtempers, have been cured, beſides many others that have received conſiderable Relief, both In and Out-patients; and if ſo much Good has been done by ſo ſmall a Number of Contributors, how much more then may reaſonably be expected from the liberal Aid and Aſſiſtance of the Well-diſpoſed who hitherto have not join'd in the Undertaking? Experience has more and more convinced all concerned, of the great Uſefulneſs of this Charity.'----The Careful Attendance afforded to the Sick Poor; the Neatneſs, Cleanneſs, and Regularity of Diet with which they are kept in the Hoſpital, are found to contribute to their Recovery much ſooner than their own Manner of Living at Home, and render the Phyſick they take more effectual. Here they have the beſt Advice, and the beſt Medicines, which are Helps to Recovery, that many in better Circumſtances in different Parts of the Province do not enjoy. In ſhort, there is ſcarce any one Kind of doing Good, which is not hereby in ſome Manner promoted; for not only the Sick are viſited and relieved, but the Stranger is taken in, the Ignorant inſtructed, and the Bad reclaimed *; preſent Wants are ſupplied, and the future prevented, and (by eaſing poor Families of the Burthen of ſupporting and curing their Sick) it is alſo the Means of feeding the Hungry, and clothing the Naked.

It is therefore hoped, that by additional Benefactions from pious and benevolent Perſons (an Account of which will be publiſhed yearly according to Law) this Charity may be farther extended, ſo as to embrace with open Arms all the Sick Poor that need the Relief it affords, and that the Managers will not, in Time to come, be under a Neceſſity, from the Narrowneſs of the Funds, of refuſing Admittance to any proper Object. " It is hoped that a deaf Ear will not be turn'd to the Cries of thoſe, in whoſe Favour " both Religion and Humanity ſtrongly plead; who are recommended by the great Pattern of human Conduct; who in Sickneſs are " loſt to Society; who contribute greatly to the Inſtruction of thoſe Youth to whom the Lives of High and Low may hereafter be en" truſted, whoſe Prayers are to be ſent up for their Deliverers; but that all will aſſiſt to render the Funds of this Hoſpital anſwerable " to the Neceſſities of the Poor.-----Incapacity of contributing can by none be pleaded; the Rich only indeed can beſtow large Sums, " but moſt can ſpare ſomething yearly, which collected from many, might make a handſome Revenue, by which great Numbers of di" ſtreſs'd Objects can be taken Care of; and relieved, many of whom may poſſibly one Day make a Part of the bleſſed Company " above, when a Cup of cold Water given to them will not be unrewarded. Let People but reflect what unneceſſary Expences they " have been at in any Year for vain Superfluities or Entertainments, for mere Amuſements or Diverſions, or perhaps in vicious De" bauches; and then let them put the Queſtion to themſelves, Whether they do not wiſh that Money had been given in the Way now " propoſed? If this Reflection has Influence on their future Conduct, the Poor will be provided for. The leaſt Mite may be here " given without a Bluſh; for what People would not chuſe to give the Treaſurer, or any Manager, the Trouble to receive, may be " put into their Charity-boxes, or into the Box which is fixed in the Entry of the Hoſpital: Where Money cannot ſo well be ſpared, " Proviſion or Linen, Blankets, and any Kind of Furniture, Herbs and Roots for the Kitchen, or the Apothecary, or other Neceſſa" ries of a Family, may be delivered to the Matron, or Governeſs; old Linen, and even Rags, for Lint, Bandages, and other chy" rurgical Dreſſings, are acceptable, being ſcarce to be purchas'd ſometimes for Money; and tho' they are of little or no Value to " thoſe who have them, they are abſolutely neceſſary in ſuch an Hoſpital, and will be thankfully received.'

* The kind Viſits and Converſation of ſome ſerious Perſons, and the pious Books that have been left in the Hoſpital, recommended to the Peruſal of the Patients, together with the exact Regularity kept in the Houſe, have been attended with a Bleſſing in theſe Reſpects.

Hanover, May 3. The Number of Horſes lately bought up in this Electorate for the Service of different Potentates, is ſo conſiderable, that we don't remember any Thing like it, even in Time of War.

Paris, May 3. The Reports of the approaching Recal of the Parliament ſtill gain Credit. The Prince of Conti labours towards it as zealouſly as ever; and the King having honour'd the Marſhals Noailles, Belleiſle, and Richelieu, ſo far as to conſult each of them ſeparately about this Affair, their Opinions entirely agreed with the Principles on which the Prince of Conti has acted. They talk already at Court of an Expedient which is to be propoſed to the Parliament, in order to regain the Favour and Good Will of their Sovereign; and if what is given out on this Head be well grounded, Matters will ſoon be ſettled on a ſolid Baſis, by Means of a wiſe Regulation that will put an End to all ſcandalous Refuſals of the Sacraments, and will preſcribe to the Clergy the Rules they are to obſerve in Caſes where they may be Motives weighty enough to refuſe, or at leaſt delay the Adminiſtration of the Sacraments.

Genoa, April 22. We have Advice from Sicily, that ſeveral Veſſels belonging to different Nations, having met with a dreadful Storm near Cape Paſſaro, were driven upon the Coaſt, and all loſt, together with their Crews.

Leghorn, April 24. The Corſican Malcontents may be divided into two Claſſes: The firſt conſiſts of Noble and Patrician Families, the Clergy, and the civiliz'd Corſicans. A Part of theſe compoſe the Grand Council, which ſits at Corte in the Center of the Iſland, and has the ſupreme Direction of their Affairs. They alſo form a Court of Juſtice, where Cauſes are decided with all the Formality of judicial Proceedings. The other Claſs conſiſts of the Mountaineers, who are very formidable, both on account of their Numbers, and the Violence of their Reſentments. Agreeable to their Oath, they have lately put eighteen Perſons to the Sword, who favour'd the Genoeſe. The Grand Council, on receiving Advice that the Marquis de Grimaldi had ſack'd ſome Villages, the Inhabitants whereof be ſuſpected of favouring the Malcontents, immediately declar'd him an Enemy to the Nation, and ſet a Price on his Head. The Marquis has ſince ſet a Price on the Heads of the Corſican Chiefs.

Oſtend, May 5. On the firſt Inſtant the Water was let into the new Canal which has juſt been dug here, and the Publick Bark came into it the next Day. Several Veſſels have ſince paſſed through the Sluice of this Canal to go to Bruges and Ghent, ſo that the Navigation between thoſe Places is now quite open. The great Sluice will be begun upon very ſoon, great Part of the Timber for that Work being already finiſhed, and the Mills employed Day and Night to compleat the reſt.

Smyrna, April 1. The rebellious Arabs, with the Prince Abilirſam Pirtiram at their Head, having for ſome Time committed great Diſorders, and pillaged a rich Caravan, which was carrying the annual Preſent to the Tomb of Mahomet at Mecca, the Ottoman Pacha in thoſe Quarters receiv'd Orders to purſue and arreſt the Prince Abilirſam, on which he retir'd into the Deſarts of Puram, and encamp'd near Sterrat with the moſt reſolute of the Rebels; but the Pacha being inform'd of the Place of his Retreat, march'd thither, and took him Priſoner, in ſpight of all his Efforts.

Madrid, April 23. A Report has been current for ſome Days, that, by Order of the Court, many Engineers had begun to draw a Line of Separation, and fix Land-marks in the Kingdom of Gallicia, on the Side of the Provinces of Caſtile and Aſturias, which occaſions various Conjectures.

Stockholm, April 29. The royal Fleet, which has been augmenting for ſome Years, will be in Condition to put to Sea towards the End of next Month; and there are as many Seamen aſſembled in our maritime Towns, as would be ſufficient, in caſe of Need, to equip twenty Ships of the Line.

Vienna, May 1. The Empreſs Queen has approv'd of a Plan for repairing and augmenting the Fortifications of Olmutz in Moravia, and has conſented that 300,000 Florins ſhould be employ'd for that Purpoſe.

Breſt, May 2. Purſuant to our Orders from Court, the Men of War on the Stocks are compleating with all Expedition, and one of 60 Guns will be launch'd in a few Days.

Paris A-la-main, May 13. We learn from Genoa, that Things are like to go worſe and worſe in Corſica, where the Highlanders are upon the March to oppoſe the Diſturbance which has lately happen'd in the Balagna, where the Chiefs Guilliani and Fabiani have engaged each other at the Head of their reſpective Parties, and killed about 20 Men. This Account of their falling out among themſelves gives the Genoeſe great Pleaſure, as they hope it will be a Means of preventing their executing Schemes of worſe Conſequence. Notwithſtanding this, the Magiſtracy at Corte has confiſcated all the Eſtates of the Genoeſe in that Country, which is an Affair of no trifling Concern.

Moſcow, April 17. Some Perſons lately arriv'd from the Ukraine, mention a Report there of the Death of the Grand Seignior, which, if true, would at this Juncture be a Piece of Intelligence of great Importance.

Barcelona, April 23. The Fleet which arm'd and equipp'd in this Port, waits only for a favourable Wind to ſet Sail. We are aſſur'd that they are deſign'd to cruize on the Coaſts of this Kingdom to deſtroy the Barbary Corſairs.

Madrid, April 23. Mr. Keene, the Engliſh Ambaſſador, attends at Court aſſiduouſly, and is often with the Duke of Huſcar, and the Marquis of Enſenada, on the Affairs which remain to be adjuſted between the two Powers in America.

Naples, April 23. Another Augmentation, equal to the former, has been lately order'd. It is reported that their Royal Highneſſes the Duke and Dutcheſs of Parma will ſpeedily repair hither, in order to be out of the Way of any Diſturbances that may happen in Italy. It is believ'd that the Diſputes between our Court and that of the Grand Maſter of Malta will be amicably adjuſted, without the Formality of a Congreſs. An Expreſs is arriv'd with the News that our new Archbiſhop is promoted to the Rank of a Cardinal, and it is whiſper'd, that 12000 Spaniſh Infantry will be very ſoon tranſported hither.

Vienna, May 4. Mr. Keith, the Engliſh Miniſter, has viſited for ſome Days paſt Count Montecuculi, Miniſter from the Duke of Modena, and it is ſaid there are Overtures made for a Treaty between the King of Great-Britain and the Duke.

Vienna, May 4. Count Roſenberg, our Ambaſſador to the Republick of Venice, is on the Point of Departure; as are alſo Count Merci, and the Marquis de Botta, the former for Turin, the latter for Florence. It is ſaid that he carries with him a very ſtrong Decree of the Aulic Council in Favour of the Inhabitants of St. Remo againſt the Republick of Genoa. Great Preparations are making at Prague for the Reception of their Imperial Majeſties, and a Report prevails, that the Bavarians are to form a ſtrong Camp in the Upper Palatinate.

Straſburgh, May 6. The Troops that are to encamp in Alſace this Seaſon, will form a Corps of 25000 Men, under the Command of the Marquis de Maillebois, Lieutenant General; and, according to the Diſpoſitions they have already begun to make, that Camp will be in the Plain between Haguenau and Biſchweiler.

Leghorn, April 26. Notwithſtanding the great Precaution of the Genoeſe, a Veſſel has lately landed at Iſola Roſſa a large Quantity of warlike Stores, and ſome Field-pieces, for the Uſe of the Corſican Malcontents, who appear to have ſome grand Deſign in View.

LONDON.

May 14. Upon Complaints made to the Court, that the Governor of Canada had lately made Encroachments in Defiance of the Britiſh Crown's Right of Sovereignty in the Province of Virginia, the King has charg'd the Earl of Albemarle, his Embaſſador at the French Court, to make Repreſentations on this Subject, and to demand, that Orders be ſent to that Governor to obviate the ſaid Cauſes of Complaint, in order to prevent ſuch Courſes as the Inhabitants of Virginia will think themſelves authoriz'd to take, in caſe they don't obtain the Satisfaction and Security they have demanded.

May 17. We are inform'd by Letters from Flanders, that a Scheme is on Foot, which will certainly be carried into Execution this Year, for digging a new Canal at Dunkirk, from the End of that made laſt Year acroſs the Road, in order to join the Canal from St. Omers, which comes to the upper End of the Harbour above the Baſon, where two new Sluices are to be fix'd. This, it is ſaid, will be done under a Pretence that the Canal made laſt Year is inſufficient to anſwer the Ends propoſed, which was, that of clearing a Tract of Land of about 11 Miles in Circumference, of the Water, which, for the greateſt Part of the Year overflows it, ever ſince the Spaniards let the Sea in. But if this Scheme is executed, it is eaſy to foreſee, that, as the Canal made laſt Year has Communication with that from Furnes, Ypres, Bruges, and Ghent, the French will at any Time, in caſe of a War with Flanders, not only prevent the Queen of Hungary from laying the Country under Water; but by the Sluices which are to be fix'd, and thoſe fix'd heretofore, which have never been remov'd, they will be able, in a very ſhort Time, to clear the Harbour of Dunkirk of all its Rubbiſh.

All new Works erected at Dunkirk, towards the Sea, and all Attempts to clear the Port, are ſaid to be Infringements of the Treaty of Utrecht, notwithſtanding any Thing that may be ſaid to the contrary.

At preſent there ſeems to be no Doubt, that our powerful and reſtleſs Rivals the French, are very intent on ſettling at the Back of Virginia, on the River Ohio, to the no ſmall Terror of the Inhabitants of our Northern Colonies, as being very ſenſible, that if this Deſign once takes Place, ſomething more fatal to them muſt enſue. Ought not this Subject to be immediately impartially and maturely conſider'd at home? Is there any Thing more worthy the Attention of true Patriots? Or can a ſtrict Enquiry into the Cauſes and Conſequences of this Danger offend any true Friends to the Colonies?

It is unkind to throw Reflections on the Colonies for complaining, becauſe this ſuppoſes them always in the Wrong; and if this was really ſo, they who cenſure them might as eaſily---prove it; and then they would be cenſur'd by their Countrymen---whereas till this ſhall be done, they will be pitied.

The Troops ſent from South-Carolina to Virginia, are from the three independent Companies form'd out of Oglethorpe's brave Regiment, who will be of the greateſt Service there, having been long uſed to Indians, and Indian Warfare.

May 18. There is a Talk of his Britannick Majeſty's entire Ceſſion of his Claim to Eaſt-Frieſland in favour of the King of Pruſſia; for which he will be indemnified by the Empreſs Queen.

Captain Cook, of the Paradiſe, arriv'd at Cowes from Carolina, brings an Account, that the Jamaica Sloop, before he came away, ſail'd from Charles-Town for Virginia, with 150 Soldiers on board, and that it was expected all the other Settlements on the Continent would ſend Forces to aſſiſt in defending the Back Settlements in that Province from the Encroachments of the French.

The Sale of Corſica in Favour of a Prince of the Bourbon Family, it is ſaid, is actually reſolv'd on in the Senate of Genoa; who, for certain political Reaſons, have prudently rejected the Terms offer'd by the Pope in Behalf of a certain Adventurer.

May 21. On Saturday their Graces the Duke and Dutcheſs of Dorſet arriv'd at their Houſe at the Cockpit from Ireland. And on Sunday his Grace waited on his Majeſty at Kenſington, and was moſt graciouſly receiv'd.

We hear that the enſuing Seaſon near 80 Veſſels will be employ'd in the Service of the Engliſh for the Greenland Trade.

May 22. We hear that the enliſting Men into the French Service is carried on in different Parts of England with remarkable Diligence, and principally by the Officers from the Iriſh Brigades, who are aſſiſted by Prieſts, and even by Women.

Some Perſons, who ought to know, are very confident in aſſerting, that all the French Propoſals to our Eaſt-India Company, are calculated merely to gain Time till they have an Opportunity of ſtriking ſome deciſive Blow in that Part of the World.

It is reported that John Pitt, Eſq; is appointed Governor of South-Carolina, in the Room of------Glen, Eſq; who is returning to England.

The Hon.------Hamilton, Eſq; having reſign'd as Governor of Philadelphia, the Hon. Robert Hunter Morris, Eſq; lately appointed, will embark at Plymouth in a few Days on board a Man of War for that Colony.

ANNAPOLIS, Auguſt 1.

Tueſday and Tueſday Night laſt, we had a great deal of Rain: In Baltimore County the like has ſcarce been ever known, and the Damage done there is very great; ſome of the Iron-works have ſuffer'd; almoſt all the Bridges are carried away; the fine large Bridge at Baltimore Town is removed about 60 Feet; many Corn Field Fences waſh'd away; much Corn waſh'd up by the Roots; and the Roads made almoſt impaſſable.

Auguſt 8. We are aſſured that his Excellency our Governor has ordered two Companies of Men to be raiſed in this Province, who are to receive Eight-pence a Day, each private Soldier, from the Time of Enliſting, and Cloaths, Arms, and Accoutrements, upon their marching to join the Troops under the Command of Col. Innes: After which Time they will be alſo ſupplied with Proviſions at free Coſt.

We are alſo informed, that his Excellency has commiſſioned John Roſs, Eſq; of this City, to enliſt any Men that ſhall offer themſelves as Voluntiers for his Majeſty's Service.

Friday laſt a Special Court of Oyer and Terminer was held here, when the Grand Jury found Bills againſt John Wright and Molatto Toney, for the Murder of Captain Curtis, in the Sloop Hopewell, in March laſt. When they were brought to the Bar, Wright ſaved the Court the Trouble of a Trial by pleading Guilty; and after a ſhort Trial of Toney, the Jury found him Guilty. Yeſterday at Ten a Clock they were both executed at the Gallows juſt without our City Gate, and their Bodies afterwards hung in Irons, about 10 Yards aſunder on two Gibbets at Hacket's Point. John Smith, who was principally concerned in the Murder, and is ſaid to be the firſt Contriver of it, inform'd againſt the other Two in South Carolina, and being recommended to his Excellency our Governor from thence for Mercy, received his Pardon.

We have heard of much more Damage than was mentioned in our laſt being done by the great Rain on Tueſday and Tueſday Night laſt Week, there being ſcarcely a Mill left either in Baltimore or Kent County.

Yeſterday Capt. Davy, in the-----, arrived here from Briſtol, having 50 indented Servants, and 69 of the King's ſeven Year Paſſengers; being the firſt Veſſel enter'd here liable to the late Act for his Majeſty's Service, which lays a Duty of Twenty Shillings each on the latter Sort, and Five Shillings each on the Former.

BOSTON, Auguſt 5.

By Letters from Treconick, on Kenneberk River, we are inform'd, that General Winſlow was arriv'd there with a good Body of Troops, and that he was buſy in building a Fort:---That he had landed his Cannon, and having mounted them, fir'd them off, when His Majeſty's Health was drank, a Number of the Norridgwalk Indians being preſent, who behave civilly, and ſeem to be well ſatisfied with our Proceedings. That two of our Soldiers, an Iriſhman, and a New-England Man, had deſerted, and were going towards Canada, but being met by ſome of the Norridgwalks, they brought the Fellows back, and deliver'd them to the General, and have promiſed to do the like by any other Deſerters they may meet with.

About ten Days ago, a Sloop bound to Connecticut,-----Patterſon Maſter, was caſt aſhore near Marſhfield, but the People and Cargo were ſav'd, and 'tis hop'd the Veſſel may be got off.

Wedneſday laſt the reverend Mr. Gideon Hawley was ordain'd in the Old South Meeting-houſe, to the Work of the Miniſtry, more eſpecially as a Miſſionary among the Mohawk Indians, whoſe Language he has learned, having been among them for upwards of Twelve Months paſt. 'Tis ſaid thoſe Indians, eſpecially the young Ones, are very docile, and deſirous of being inſtructed in the Principles of the Chriſtian Religion and Morality.

Yeſterday arriv'd here Capt. Joſeph Prince from Cadiz, by whom we hear, That 3 Ships laden with Treaſure were arriv'd there from New-Spain, one of them a 70 Gun Ship, with as rich a Cargo as was ever known, having on board to the Value of 70 or 80 Millions of Dollars.

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 12.

Captain Roome, from Liſbon, adviſes, that the Portugueze are reſolved no longer to ſubmit tamely to the Inſolence of the Barbary Corſairs; but being awakened from their Lethargy, are buſy fitting out a Fleet of ten or fifteen Sail of Men of War, in order to convince thoſe Pyrates, that they are determined to repel Force by Force, and have full Satisfaction for the repeated Inſults daily offered to the Flag of his Portugueze Majeſty.

Laſt Friday his Majeſty's Ship Shoreham (a cruizing Veſſel) Julian Legge, Commander, arrived here from Halifax.

PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 15.

In January, 1753, four of our Indian Traders, viz. Alexander M'Genty, Jabez Evans, David Hendricks, and William Powell, were taken trading on Kantucqui River, near the Obio, by a Party of French Indians, called the Cagnawaga's, who plundered them of Goods to the Value of ſeveral Hundred Pounds, and carried them to Canada; where they were made Slaves. But acquainting the Mayor of Albany with their miſerable Situation, by a Letter which he communicated to this Government, Meaſures were taken to procure their Releaſe. The Indians at firſt demanded a Negroe Boy for each of them, or as much Money as would buy one; but at length were prevailed on by the Commiſſioners of Indian Affairs at Albany, to take leſs; tho' the whole paid them, with the Charges, amounted to Seventy-two Pounds, Five Shillings and Three Halfpence, for the four Priſoners, which Sum has been repaid by this Province. However, the Indians it ſeems pretend not to be ſatisfied; and Col. Myndert Schuyler, one of the Albany Commiſſioners for Indian Affairs, who tranſacted this Matter with them, received lately the following Letter from the Chief of that Nation on the Subject, viz.

Falls of St. Louis, June 14, 1754.

I Pray thee, my Brother *Anagarondon, to acquaint the Gentlemen, that I have not been ſatisfied for the Priſoners that were delivered to you at Albany laſt Year. My young Men tell me every Day that they do not like your Management, and that for the future they will bring no living Priſoners, ſince they do not receive as much for one of them as will buy a little Slave. You know, my Brother, that I had only ninety Livres of our Money. I charge Montandre with this Commiſſion, who will explain my Sentiments to you, when he delivers you this Letter. The leaſt that ought to be paid for a Priſoner is 400 Livres†. Let thoſe that have the Management of theſe Sort of Affairs, give due Attention to this: Otherwiſe I will not anſwer for what may happen hereafter, when my young Men make Priſoners.

By this inſulting Letter from a People with whom this Province has not had the leaſt Difference, to whom we have never given the leaſt Occaſion of Offence, we may ſee the Contempt in which we are held by theſe Savages; who not content with plundering our People of their Goods with Impunity, propoſe to make Slaves of all of us they can catch, or to have a Sum for each ſufficient to purchaſe a Slave, otherwiſe threatning they will not be at the Trouble of ſaving our Lives. If they are ſuffered to go on in this Manner, and to make a Trade of catching our People, and ſelling them to us again for 400 Livres per Head, it may in time coſt us more to ſatisfy the Demands of that Handful of Barbarians, than would ſerve to defend the Province againſt all its Enemies."

Extract of a Letter from Barbados, dated July 19, 1754, relating to the Rebecca, Captain Lowther, lately mentioned in this Paper to have been carried into Martineco, and condemn'd there.

"I have only Time to acquaint you, that I ſhall ſail for Martineco To-morrow, with proper Credentials to the General there; and Commodore Pye has faithfully promiſed, if I do not receive full Satisfaction for the Value of the Brigantine and Cargo, he will go down himſelf immediately on my Return, and uſe his Authority to have Juſtice done us."

Capt. Dreſon, from Madeira, adviſes, that off of Cape-Hatteras he ſpoke with the Tyger, Capt. Burrows, bound to Jamaica from this Port.

Captain Appowin, in 23 Days from Jamaica, informs us, that Capt. Gardner was to ſail three Days after him for this Place: That Capt. Rhodes in a Ship for Boſton, ſailed in Company with him; and that a Schooner for the ſame Place, would ſail two Days after: That three Leagues to the Eaſtward of the Iſland he ſpoke with Capt. Rees, of and from this Harbour, going in there: And that off of Morant Keys he alſo ſpoke with two New-York Sloops, bound to the Bay of Honduras.

Since the Reverend Mr. GEORGE WHITEFIELD arriv'd here, he has preach'd almoſt every Evening in the New Preſbyterian Church, and always to very crowded and polite Audiences. We hear he intends to ſet out for Boſton on Tueſday next, and deſigns to preach at Neſhaminey at Four that Afternoon; at Newtown on Wedneſday, at Ten in the Morning, and at Trenton at Four in the Afternoon; at Maidenhead on Thurſday, at Croſwicks on Friday, and at Freehold on Saturday, at Ten a Clock in the Morning each Day; and on Sunday Morning and Evening at Brunſwick.

Little Writers may venture to entertain the Public in their Way, when great Geniuſes are pleaſed to retire, and allow them a clear Stage. Thoſe, who generally make their Appearance firſt during ſuch a Vacation of Wit, are a numerous Claſs, well known by the Name of Imitators. Of this Rank I profeſs myſelf one; and tho' we dont ſtand firſt in the Records of Fame, a good Imitation is however a Work of Merit. It is a Work of more or leſs Difficulty, according as the original Author's Manner of Compoſition is more or leſs peculiar to himſelf. This Rule being allow'd, mine is an arduous Taſk; for my Original is truly an Original in every Senſe of the Word. Yet ſingular as the Gentleman is in Thought and Diction, I have endeavour'd to keep Pace with him. His pathetic Addreſs, his ſmart Witticiſms, quaint Curſes, and particularly, the melodious Jingle of his Rhimes, I have drawn into the Letter annex'd, without doing them the leaſt Violence. And I cannot help thinking they are now placed in a much more proper Situation than that which they originally poſſeſt.

BUCKRAM the Journeyman Taylor's Love-letter to his Sweetheart Sue, in which the Humour of our laſt cold chiming Epilogue is exactly copied, and its peculiar Beauties either tranſcrib'd or imitated.

LET thankleſs Slaves for Favours humbly aſk,
But to be grateful is a nobler Taſk;
Accept my Thanks then, Sue, for Favours paſt,
And for the laſt---if it ſhould prove the laſt;
Yet would I fain
Preſume ſome Hopes remain.
Some diſtant Hopes that we may meet again;
Again to hear your conſtant Swain complain,
And whiſtle through his Noſe a dying Strain;
From Tears of Grief I could not well refrain,
To think, dear Sue, we ne'er ſhould meet again.
But, hark! methinks I hear ſome Snarler cry,
Zounds! Buckram, 'tis in vain---Why? Demme, why?
Kind Sue will never let her Lover die;
Then Snarler Peace, for rat me, but I'll try.
Forbid it, Sue, that ever I ſhould ſee
Some Dog ſtrole o'er thy Sweets, and drink them all from
This Sight would drive me to ſome fatal Tree,
* And rat me, but I'd rather hang on thee.
Then truſt me, Sue, my Love is aim'd at you,
To mend your Gown I'll ſummon to your View
Patches of every Hue, both old and new,
Brown, yellow, black and blue,
Of Velvet, Worſted, Silk, a motly Crew.
And when to mirthful Mirth you are inclin'd,
Sheer comic Wit ſhall feaſt the chearful Mind:
For comic ſheer Wit was deſign'd, you'll find,
Like ſharpeſt Shears to ſhape the human Kind.
Thus ſhaping is my Trade---A ſpacious Field,
Which Nature's nobleſt Entertainment yields;
By Men of Cloth admir'd from ancient Time,
Who fitting Nature never thought a Crime;
Then, deareſt Sue, accept my whining Rhime,
And let your Heart to mine in loving Meaſure chime.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

Extract of a Letter from an Officer in the Virginia Regiment to his Friend in Philadelphia, dated at Belhaven, August 9. 1754.

SIR,

AS the Articles of Capitulation, mention'd in your Philadelphia News Papers, are censur'd, and thereby seem to reflect Dishonour on Colonel Washington, who is a brave and worthy young Gentleman, able to answer any Thing that can be expected from one of his Age and Experience, as well as on all the Corps then present, I have given you an Account of the Circumstances we were in about the Time of the Engagement; and, for the Satisfaction of our Countrymen, as well as to set our Conduct in a right Light, I desire you will have it put in the Pennsylvania Gazette.

JUNE 29th we receiv'd certain Intelligence, that the French were reinforced with 300 white Men, and the same Number of Indians, and that they intended to march immediately to attack us: Whereupon Colonel Washington call'd a Council of War, wherein it was resolv'd to send an Express to hasten the Independants to join us, and that in the mean Time we should set about fortifying ourselves as well as the Time would permit, and there wait the Arrival of Captain Lewis and Mr. Polson, who were out on Detachments, and to whom Orders were sent to join us with the utmost Expedition. Captain M'Kay arriv'd at our Camp at Gist's House in the Night, and we were join'd by our Detachments next Forenoon; when a Council of War was again call'd, wherein it was unanimously resolv'd to retreat immediately, carrying all the publick Stores with us; and as we had but two very indifferent Teams, and few Horses, the Officers loaded their own Horses with Ammunition, and left Part of their Baggage behind, Colonel Washington setting them an Example, by ordering his Horse to be loaded first, and giving four Pistoles to some Soldiers to carry his Baggage. We had nine Swivels, which were drawn by the Soldiers of the Virginia Regiment twelve Miles of the most broken Road on the Allegheny Mountain. The Independants refused to assist in drawing the Guns, or helping off with the Ammunition; nor would they do Duty as Pioneers, which had an unhappy Effect on our Men; for they no sooner learnt that it was not the proper Duty of Soldiers to perform these Services, than they became as backward as the Independants. This was one great Reason why we had not compleated our Works before the Attack.

On the first of July we arriv'd very much fatigu'd at the Meadows, and had continued our Retreat, but for want of Horses and Conveniences to carry out Ammunition. Our Men had been eight Days without Bread, and instead of a large Convoy which we expected, there arriv'd only a few Bags of Flour. They were so harrassed with working on the Fortifications at Gist's, and marching, that they were not able to draw the Swivels. We had certain Intelligence, that the York Independants had arriv'd at Alexandria twenty Days before, and a Report that they had got to Will's Creek, on their March to join us. Considering these Circumstances, it was thought most adviseable to fortify ourselves in the best Manner, and there wait our Convoys and Reinforcements, which we daily expected; and in the mean Time an Express was sent to inform them of our Situation, and hasten them up. We set about clearing the Woods nearest to us, and carrying in the Logs to raise a Breast-work, and enlarge our Fort.

July the 3d, by Break of Day, we were alarm'd by one of our Centries, who was wounded by the Enemy; and about Nine a Clock we receiv'd Intelligence by some of our advanced Parties, that the Enemy were within four Miles of us, and that they were a very numerous Body, and all naked. We continu'd to fortify and prepare ourselves for their Reception. They came up with us before Eleven a Clock, and, by their furious Attack, and superior Numbers, we expected they would storm us at once, and therefore answer'd them only with Musket-shot now and then, as we could make sure of an active Fellow. The keeping up our Fire made the Enemy more secure, and expose themselves the more, which was a principal Reason of their losing so many Men on that Occasion. About dark they call'd to parly, and we suspecting Deceit, took but little Notice of it at first; but they calling again and again, Van Braam was sent to speak with them, who soon return'd, and assur'd us, that they were in Earnest. This was no disagreeable News to us, who had receiv'd no Intelligence of the Approach of our Convoys or Reinforcements, and we had only two Bags of Flour, and a little Bacon, for the Support of 300 Men. We had no Salt to have kill'd the Milch Cows we had, or we would have done it before the Engagement, and they, our greatest Dependance, immediately became the Property of a superior Enemy. By the continu'd Rains, and Water in the Trenches, the most of our Arms were out of Order, and we had only two Screws in the whole Regiment to clean them; and what was still worse, one Half of our Men got drunk as soon as it was dark. Under these disadvantageous Circumstances, and by the too great Condescensions of Van Braam, we agreed to the inclosed Articles. Mr. Peroony was dangerously wounded, and we much regretted the Loss of his Services on this Occasion.

When Mr. Van Braam return'd with the French Proposals, we were oblig'd to take the Sense of them from his Mouth; it rain'd so hard, that he could not give us a written Translation of them; we could scarcely keep the Candle light to read them by; and every Officer there is ready to declare, that there was no such Word as Assassination mention'd; the Terms expressed were, The Death of Jamonville. If it had been mention'd, we would by all Means have had it alter'd, as the French, during the Course of the Interview, seem'd very condescending, and desirous to bring Things to a Conclusion: And upon our insisting, alter'd the Article relating to Stores and Ammunition, which they wanted to detain; and that of the Cannon, which they agreed to have Destroy'd, instead of Reserv'd for their Use.

Another Article which appears to our Disadvantage, is that, whereby we oblige ourselves not to attempt an Establishment beyond the Mountains. This was translated to us, Not to attempt Buildings or Improvements on the Lands of his Most Christian Majesty: This we never intended, as we deny'd he had any there, and therefore thought it needless to dispute that Point.

The last Article, which relates to the Hostages, is quite different from the Translation of it given to us: It is mention'd for the Security of the Performance of this Treaty, as well as for the Return of the Prisoners: There was never such an Intention on our Side, or Mention of it made on theirs by our Interpreter. Thus by the evil Intention or Negligence of Van Braam our Conduct is scrutiniz'd by a busy World, fond of criticising on the Proceedings of others, without considering Circumstances, or giving just Attention to Reasons which might be offer'd to obviate their Censures.

Let any of those brave Gentlemen, who fight so many successful Campaigns over a Bottle, imagine himself at the Head of 300 Men, whose Lives in a great Measure he is answerable for, labouring under all the Disadvantages above mention'd, and environ'd with four times his Number of an active Enemy, and would he not be glad to accept of worse Terms than Colonel Washington did? which were all the Honours of War, without Mention of Assassination, or the other Expressions mention'd in the Articles objected to above. If he did not, it appears to me, that he might justly be said to be accessory to the Destruction of so many Men, which would be the inevitable Consequence of his mistaken Courage or Obstinacy. There is no Reason to doubt but the whole Affair was well conducted, when the French, who had particular Orders to give no Quarter, and to pay their Indians with our Scalps and Spoils, were the first who discover'd an Inclination to treat: That they had such Orders, and intended no Quarter, is certain from the Mouth of one of their own Officers. I will give you an Account of the Engagement wherein Jamonville was kill'd in my next. They call it an Assassination; for my Part, I call it a brave little Action; and, after hearing the Whole, I doubt not but you will be of my Opinion: I will always chearfully embrace an Opportunity of being concern'd in such an Assassination. I am, with Respect,

Yours, &c.

A true COPY of the CAPITULATION in French.

CAPITULATION accordeé par Mr. De Villier, Capt. d'Infanterie, Commandant des Troupes de sa Majesté tres Chretienne, à celuy des Troupes Angloises actuellement dans le Fort de Necessité, que avoit eté construit sur les Terres du Domain du Roi, ce 3d Juillet, à huit Heures du Soir, scavoir,

Comme nôtre Intention n'a jamais eté de troubler la Paix et la bonne Harmonie que regnoit entre les deux Princes amis, mais seulement de vanger l'Assassin qui a eté fait sur un de nos Officiers, Porteurs d'une Sommation, et sur son Escort, comme aussi d'empecher aucun Etablissement sur les Terres du Domain du Roi mon Maitre; à ces Considerations, nous voulons bien accorder Grace à tous les Anglois que sont dans le dit Fort, aux Conditions cy apres.

ARTICLE I.

NOUS accordons au Commandant Anglois de se retirer avec toute sa Garnison, pour s'en retourner paisiblement dans son Pays; et lui promettons d'empecher qu'il luy soit fait aucune Insulte par nos François; et de maintenir, autant qu'il sera en nôtre Pouvoir, tous les Sauvages qui sont avec nous.

II.

Il lui sera permis de sortir, et d'emporter tout ce qui leur appartiendra, à l'exception de l'Artillerie, que nous nous reservons.

III.

Que nous leurs accordons les Honneurs de la Guerre, qu'ils sortiront Tambour batant, avec une Piece de petit Canon, voulant bien par là leur prouver que nous les traitons en Amis.

IV.

Que sitot les Articles signez de part et d'autre, ils ameneront le Pavillon Anglois.

V.

Que Demain, à la Pointe du Jour, un Detachement François ira pour faire defiler la Garnison, et prendre Possession du dit Fort.

VI.

Que comme les Anglois n'ont presque plus de Chevaux ni Boeufs, ils seront libres de mettre leur Effets en cache, pour venir les chercher, quand ils auront rejoints des Chevaux; ils pourront à cette fin y laisser des Gardiens en tel Nombre qu'ils voudront, aux Conditions qu'ils donneront Parolle d'Honneur de ne plus travailler à aucun Etablissement dans ce lieu, ni en deca la hauteur des Terres, pendant une Année, à compter de ce Jour.

VII.

Que comme les Anglois ont en leur Pouvoir un Officier, deux Cadets, et generalement les Prisoniers qu'ils nous ont fait dans l'Assassinat du Sieur De Jamonville, et qu'ils promettent de les renvoyer avec Sauvegarde jusqu' au Fort Du Quesne, situé sur la Belle Riviere, et que pour Sureté de cette Article, ainsi que de ce Traité, Messieurs Jacob Vanbram, et Robert Stobo, tous deux Capitaines, nous seront remis en Otage jusqu' à l'Arrivée de nos Canadiens et François cy dessus mentionez. Nous nous obligeons de nôtre Coté à donner Escorte pour ramener en Sureté ces deux Officiers; qui nous promettent nos François dans deux Mois et Demi pour le plus tard: Fait double sur un des Postes de nôtre Blocus ce Jour et An que dessus.

COULON VILLIER.

 We hear, that by the fifth Article (which has been wrong translated in all our English Copies) the Virginians understand, that none of the Troops were obliged to refrain building Forts, &c. beyond the Mountains, but those that should be left to guard their Effects.

August 20. 1754.

To the Publishers of the Pennsylvania Gazette.

No Author deserves less Indulgence, than one who sets up for a Dictator in Composition. An Art of Poetry ought not to resemble the Performance of a Boy: It ought to be the last Effort of an experienced Writer, one who has given the Publick many Proofs of superior Genius, and accomplish'd Erudition. The modest Attempts of a juvenile Pen plead for a large Allowance; but he who presents the World with a Model of Elegance and correct Writing, cannot justly complain of the severest Scrutiny. This Remark will justify the Animadversions following, as a Specimen of a great Number that might be made on Philomusus. Without complimenting the Reader's Penetration, one may venture to say, he will easily discern the Improprieties of Stile, unnatural Figures, and trifling Puerilities, that abound throughout this Author's Piece De Arte Poeticâ, lately republish'd. Some of the most obvious Blunders are contain'd in the Extracts subjoin'd.

A DESCRIPTION of the EVENING.

LET Vesper then pursue the purple Light,
And lead the twinkling Glories of the Night,
The Moon must rise in Silver o'er the Shades,
Stream through your Pen, and glance along the Meads.

The Moon must stream through your Pen.] A very pretty Conceit indeed! Query, If Philomusus should apply his Mouth to that Stream, might he not imbibe a large Mouthful of Moonshine? What a refin'd Imagination must our Bard have?

Of NOON.

Be sultry Noon in brighter yellow dress't,
And bend a Rainbow on her burning Breast.

By sultry Noon, and burning Breast, the Author lets us know the Season of the Year the young Poet is to chuse for his Description, viz. Summer. May we query then, where this wonderful Meridian Rainbow is to appear: For it seems we must never omit it in a Description of Noon. To be sure Philomusus is a great Naturalist, and can tell us in what Part of the Hemisphere it ought to be fixed.--But does not our new Art of Poetry differ here from an old One, that is still in Vogue with some People,

Qui variare cupit Rem prodigialiter unam,
Delphinum Sylvis appingit, Fluctibus aprum.

Which may be thus express'd in English, "A Son of Dulness, who cannot properly collect the natural Incidents of Noon, will embellish it with Rainbows, and all the Effects of the declining Sun."

Our next Quotation is an ingenious Quibble upon the Word Feet, with a very pretty Couplet to the Tune of a Pair of Shears.

On tuneful Feet let languid Ivy crawl,
And in poetic Measure scale the Wall;
While the sharp Shears return a clipping Sound,
And the green Leaves fall quiv'ring to the Ground.

Sharp Shears! clipping Sound! green Leaves! quiv'ring! inexpressibly musical and picturesque all!

A very POETICAL EXCLAMATION.

Invention! ah! how beautiful art thou!
I feel thy sudden Inspiration Now!
The new born Offspring longs to try his Feet,
And run through Verse with voluntary Heat.

Never had Poet a better Talent for imaging his Subject, by the Structure of his Lines, than our Author. Can any Thing more exactly represent to us the Attitude of a Writer, the Moment before his inspiring Muse makes a Descent upon him, than the first of the four Lines above. Reader, do it Justice. Pronounce it in the Manner we may suppose it was written.--------Invention!---- Here must necessarily be a Pause, for want of farther Matter.---- The Exclamation ah! and the Pause that follows, will naturally fix you some Time in a gaping Posture; then dwell a good Space upon the Conclusion of the Line, with a Stare of stupid Admiration, and you will find yourself just in the Situation of a Man, who can't tell what to say next.

I feel thy sudden Inspiration Now.

Behold his Fit of Inspiration comes on! but what Proofs have we of it? Why it slips into him the little low Word Now, that chimes as snugly with the foregoing Verse, as one cou'd desire.

The CONCLUSION.

Thus far th' adventuring Muse attempts to sing
To you, my Friend, upon pure Love's sweet Wing.

Sweet Wing.] To make Sense of these Words, one would be tempted to think Philomusus had taken his poetical Flight upon some Creature of the Poultry Species, instead of a Pegasus. But finding it quite unfit for the Purposes of Flying, he wisely began to think it would still afford him mighty good Eating. View him in this Light, and sweet is a proper Epithet. Objects of Smelling, and Hearing, are sometimes call'd sweet, by a Figure; but as a Wing is neither musical nor fragrant, Sweetness can be applicable to it only in an eating Sense.

LONDON, May 17.

Extract of a private Letter from Paris, May 11.

"As Matters seem to be almost ripe for a War in the North, and in Italy, we have a Sett of People here, who from those Appearances grow more positive that there will be no Rupture in those Parts, nor any where else in Europe; the new Levies order'd to be made in Russia and Sweden; the Augmentations made in their respective Navies; the great Increase of Land Forces in Naples and Sicily; the warlike Preparations made by Spain along her Mediterranean Coasts (to say nothing of the Dispositions of other Powers) being all design'd for no other Purposes, than to give Weight to certain Negotiations that will settle the Repose of Europe on a solid and durable Basis.

"According to those sharp sighted Politicians, such Measures are become necessary among the Powers of Christendom, even granting that none of them are bent upon Mischief; as they hereby shew one another what they are capable of doing, in case the Peace of Europe should be disturbed by any unforeseen or unexpected Events: For as to sinister Designs, or ambitious Views, it would be very uncivil to suppose any Court capable of harbouring them. But there are certain Events in the Womb of Time (though no Body can tell what they may be) which may set the Wits of great People, as well as the Minds of little Folks, a Wool-gathering; consequently it is good to be prepar'd for the worst, and, by a seasonable Parade of Land and Sea Forces, to make some Powers pull in their Horns, and tie down others by Treaties or Conventions that may last till there's a fit Opportunity to break them.

"Thus do they explain the Mystery of warlike Preparations, the End and Design of which is only to secure the general Tranquility. 'Tis true, this modern Expedient to keep the World quiet, is very expensive to every State; yet it is not so chargeable and destructive as the turning out a Million of Men into the Field, to cut one another's Throats; than which there cannot be a smaller Number employed in the next general War, as the Treaties and Engagements actually subsisting leave no Room for any of the greater Powers to remain neuter."

An

An Extract of a Letter from the Hague, dated May 10.

"The Behaviour of the Genoese towards the Corsicans, as set forth in the Manifesto lately published by the latter, does not exceed the Bounds of Probability, if we compare it to the Proceedings of the same Republick against the little Imperial Town of San Remo. People have not yet forgot the Stratagem of a Rebellion which the Chevalier Pinelli made use of last Year to make himself Master of that Town, and to strip the Inhabitants of their Arms, their Papers, their leading Men, in one Word, of every Resource. He did not leave them even the harmless Ornament of the Steeple of the great Church. That Gothic Edifice, built in the Taste of the Steeples of the Cathedrals of Vienna, Strasburgh, and Antwerp, and the handsomest on the whole Coast, after being stript of its Bells, was demolished at the Expence of the Inhabitants, who were taxed at seven Sequins a House for that Purpose.

"Since the Genoese have heard that the Aulic Council has taken this Imperial Town under its Protection, far from mitigating their barbarous Behaviour, they have demolished the Castle and the Fortifications, in order to expose the Inhabitants to the Descents of the Barbary Corsairs, and deliver them up, stript of their Effects, to a Nation, which though composed of Infidels, never acted with such Cruelty in the Estates which they conquered.

"Though the Resolution of the Aulic Council of the Empire is not yet made publick, it is known to be entirely favourable to the Petitioners. It is known too that the Marquis de Botta will carry with him to Italy a Rescript conceived in much the same Terms as that was which the Emperor Ferdinand I. addressed to the City of Genoa in 1561, in Favour of the Marquis Alphonso Caratta, whom the Senate had so unjustly dispossessed of the Marquisate of Final; and which, tho' that Emperor had not a Foot of Land in Italy, they thought it proper to comply with. But when will this Assistance arrive? The Inhabitants of San Remo, driven from their Country, repeat on this Occasion the famous Retret of the Roman Historian, Dum Roma deliberatur, Saguntum expugnatur. These Violences are not the Work of all the Members of the Senate. Many of the most distinguished openly condemned them from the first: But the opposite Party prevailed; and if among these some were hurried away by the Impetuosity of their Tempers, it is thought others were instigated by some Maritime Powers of the Mediterranean."

St. JOHN's, in Antigua, June 21.

We have Information, that on the 11th of May last, a Shallop belonging to this Place, called the Willoughby-Bay, Peter Denap, Master, on her Voyage to Dominico, having no Contraband Goods on board, was taken about six Leagues off Guadaloupe, by a French Guarda-Costa Sloop, of Martineco, Monsr. Rishé, Commander, mounting eight Carriage Guns, besides Swivels. The Frenchman first fired a Swivel, and then hoisted Colours, which the Shallop not regarding, a Four-pounder was then discharged after her, when Capt. Denap brought to: Himself and Hands were us'd well while at Sea, but as soon as they arrived at Martineco, were all closely imprisoned, and coarsely fed, twenty-one Days. As Companions in Fortune and Confinement, they found Capt. James Lowther, of the Brig Rebecca, belonging to Philadelphia, with his Crew, who was stopped in his Passage home from Barbados, and Capt. Parson, of the Sloop Esther, from St. Eustatia, with his Hands; also a Sloop taken at St. Vincent, was brought in just before our Informants came away, the Captain's Name unknown.----The Owner of the Willoughby-Bay lately went to Martineco in a Flag of Truce, to demand the Restitution of his Shallop, Slaves and Goods: He was indeed very genteelly received, and politely treated, but that was all the Satisfaction he had, for after repeated Application and earnest Sollicitation, he returned without having been able to accomplish his Aim.----'Tis said the French claim a Privilege of examining all Vessels they find sailing within a League of their Land; and that the Frenchman who stopped the above Shallop, positively swore at Martineco, that he took her no further off than Three Quarters of a League.

B O S T O N, August 12.

Monday last his Majesty's Sloop, Baltimore, Capt. Shutland, arrived here from Halifax.

N E W-Y O R K, August 19.

Last Wednesday Night Captain Wardell arrived here in 7 Days from Newbern, in North-Carolina, and informs us, That the Captains Gelston, Adams, Betts, Williams and Griffiths, from this Place, were all arrived there; as was also Captain Crispin, in a Snow, in 11 Weeks from London, by whom they had Advice, that the Honourable Arthur Dobbs, Esq; appointed Governor of that Province, was soon to embark for his Government, where his Secretary, and several other of his Attendants, were already arrived.

About Two a Clock last Thursday Morning, the Dwelling-House of Mrs. George, in the Broadway, took Fire, occasioned, as is thought, by a Rat taking a lighted Candle out of a Candlestick, and carrying it through the Room; but being timely discovered, was prevented from doing much Damage.

Capt. Lawrence in 15 Days from St. Eustatia, acquaints us, that the Captains Smith and Leycraft, of this Port, were arrived at that Island, as well as several Sloops from Rhode-Island; and that Captain Lyell was to sail in a few Days for Philadelphia. About 10 Days ago, in Latitude 30, Capt. Lawrence spoke with a Schooner from Philadelphia, bound for Jamaica.

Capt. Broadhurst, in 25 Days from Jamaica, advises us of the safe Arrival at that Island, of the Captains Burger and Carlisle, of this Place; and that two Brigs from Philadelphia, arrived at that Island the Day he sailed from thence. On the 25th ult. Capt. Broadhurst spoke with Capt. Bennet, in the Snow Jamaica-Packet, of this Place, about 8 Leagues off the East End of Jamaica, bound for that Island.

Capt. Broadhurst likewise informs us, That the Petition of Kingston, to the Support of which the Merchants of this City and Philadelphia had join'd, in Instructions to their Agents at Home, had met with the Royal Approbation; and that a Decree for the Removal of the Seat of Government had arrived in that Island some Days before he sailed. [This, as it saves a considerable Charge to the Merchant, so it does of Fatigue and Trouble to the Masters of Vessels.]

By a Vessel in four Days from Virginia, who arrived here on Thursday last, we are told, that the Assembly of that Province was to meet the 22d of this instant August: That something extraordinary in Behalf of Ohio, was expected from their Sitting; and that since the Defeat of Major Washington, a Number of Gentlemen in the Frontier Counties of Virginia, had come to a Resolution among themselves, to form a Fund to defray the Expences of raising and marching a considerable Body of Men to join Col. Innes, which were to be effected with all Speed.

PHILADELPHIA, August 22.

Extract of a Letter from Cumberland County to a Gentleman here, dated August 15. 1754.

"I am inform'd, that some of the French were, a few Days ago, within thirty Miles of my House, who kill'd some Steers, and carried off others, belonging to one Robert Baker. Alexander Cook, a young Man, who kept Store in this Neighbourhood, went to the South Branch of Potowmack, about two Months ago, in order to collect some Debts, intending not to stay above two Weeks; since which there is a Report that he is kill'd; and his staying from his Harvest, and so long beyond the Time he design'd to return in, makes his Friends believe it to be true."

Captain Gibbs, from Rhode-Island, informs us, that on his Passage he spoke with a Rhode-Island Man, from the Bay of Honduras, who told him, that the Spaniards had been there with a large Fleet, and had cut off a Number of the Baymen.

Captain Higgs, from Bermuda, spoke with the Europa, Captain Hatton, of this Port, on the eleventh Instant, abouth 70 Leagues from the Land, bound to Lisbon from Maryland.

Capt. Wier, in three Weeks from Antigua, advises, that Captain Stewart, of and for this Place, would be ready to sail in about a Week after him.

Capt. Sheehan, from St. Christophers, in 19 Days, tells us, that Capt. Howland had left that Island for Boston, but was to touch at St. Eustatia.

Capt. Bolitho, from Halifax, says, that Capt. Gibbon, belonging here, had sail'd for New-foundland some Time before he came away.

On Monday Evening last a vast Multitude of People assembled in the Academy Yard, to hear the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD preach his Farewel Sermon; but it being likely to rain, he was obliged to deliver it in the New Presbyterian Church, by which, it is supposed, one Half of those met were obliged to return to their Homes without hearing him, the Church being quite crowded, and great Numbers all round it: And next Morning he set out for Boston.

To the Freeholders, and others, electors of the county of Newcaſtle, upon Delaware,

Gentlemen,

AS I purpoſe to be a candidate for the ſheriff's office in ſaid county, at the enſuing election, I take this method (purſuant to a practice in a neighbouring province) to ſollicit your votes at ſaid election for the ſaid office; your favour herein ſhall be gratefully acknowledged by your aſſured friend, and very humble ſervant,

THOMAS M'KEAN.

JUST imported in the brigantine Lark, James Read, maſter, from London, A parcel of likely, healthy ſervant men; among whom are black-ſmiths, ſtay-makers, taylors, weavers, bakers, clothiers, barbers, butchers, farmers and gardiners, whoſe times are to be diſpoſed of by WILLIAM GRIFFITTS, in Second-ſtreet, between Spruce and Pine-ſtreets, or by captain JAMES READ, on board the ſaid brigantine, lying at Edgar's wharff.

Virginia, May 10, 1754.

By Order of the GOVERNOR and COUNCIL.

THE method of taking up lands in this colony, and the eaſy terms on which they are held of the King, not being well known to the inhabitants of the northern provinces, may be the reaſon that ſo few of thoſe people, tho' much ſtraitened for good lands, travel hither in ſearch of a fine ſoil, and a greater extent of country; and therefore the publiſhing the method and terms on which they are granted here, may be of uſe to promote the ſettlement and cultivation of the fineſt lands (perhaps in the world) that lie to the weſtward of the Allegheny mountains, along the ſeveral branches of the Miſſiſippi: With that view, this authentick ſtate of the rules in taking up and patenting lands in this government, are offered to the publick.

The Expences on a large tract of land being leſs in proportion than on a ſmaller, the calculation is here made on a tract of 1000 acres, which may be looked upon as a moderate quantity.

Whoever inclines to take up any quantity of land, not exceeding 400 acres, may enter for the ſame with the ſurveyor of the county in which the land lies, who can furniſh rights for the ſame; but if a larger quantity is wanted, he muſt petition the governor and council: For which petition, and the order of council, the clerk of that board has a fee of - - - - cur. money. £0 10 9

For entering the order of council in the auditor's office, and a certificate thereof, - - 0 5 9

For twenty rights, at Five Shillings ſterling, each, or Six Shillings and Three-pence currency, is - 6 5 0

Each right entitles the bearer to fifty acres of his Majeſty's land, as the conſideration for which it is granted, being certificates of ſo much paid in for that end.

Upon producing the order of council, and theſe rights to the ſurveyor of the county in which the land lies, he is obliged to ſurvey (as ſoon as prior entries or orders will permit) for which his fee is 500 lb. of tobacco, payable beyond the mountains at Three Farthings per lb. - - 1 11 3

After the ſurvey is finiſhed, the party is to return the plot of the land, with the rights, to the ſecretary's office, in the general court next following, and pay the fee to the ſecretary for making out the patent on parchment, and recording it in his office. 0 10 6

And alſo to the governor, for the ſeal, and his ſigning it, - - - - 1 1 6

So the whole charge for 1000 acres is about £8 4 0 ſterling, or in Virginia currency, being £5 per oz. gold, and 6 s. 8 d. per oz. ſilver, is, £10 4 9

If the ſurvey contains above 1000 acres, the ſurveyor's fee is 30 lb. of tobacco for every 100 acres more; and excepting this and the right money, the charge is the ſame on every patent above 400 acres; but that quantity, or under, may be had without the fee to the auditor, and that to the clerk of the council. The patentee holds his land in fee ſimple, to him and his heirs for ever, from the date of his patent, upon paying yearly the eaſy quitrent to his majeſty, of One Shilling ſterling, for every 50 acres; and making in three years time an eaſy cultivation on the land.

And for a further encouragement to ſettle on the waters of Miſſiſippi, the general aſſembly have (laſt November) enacted, "That whereas a conſiderable number of perſons, as well his majeſty's natural born ſubjects, as foreign proteſtants, are willing to come into this colony, with their families and effects, and ſettle on the lands near the ſaid waters, if properly encouraged: It is therefore enacted, that all perſons, being proteſtants, who ſhall ſettle and reſide on any lands ſituated to the weſtward of the Allegheny ridge, ſhall be exempted from the payment of all publick, county and pariſh levies, for the term of fifteen years next following."

And for a further encouragement to foreign proteſtants, naturalization is made very eaſy and cheap to them, and they are allowed all the indulgences of the act of toleration here.

N. WALTHOE, Cl. Con.

Lancaſter, Auguſt 5, 1754.

THREE POUNDS Reward.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, living in Little Britain townſhip, Lancaſter county, an Engliſh ſervant man, named Thomas Hall, about 5 feet 8 inches high, well-ſet, round faced, full eyed, of a black complexion, and his hair cut off: Had on when he went away, A good felt hat, dark colour'd cloth jacket, with a ſtriped linſey one under it, check ſhirt, two pair of trowſers, one pair check, and the other tow linen, old loom'd ſtockings, and very old ſhoes: He has been uſed to the ſea, and may poſſibly endeavour to paſs for a ſailor. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant, ſo as his maſter may have him again, ſhall have the above reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by THOMAS GRUBB.

Juſt imported from London, and to be ſold cheap, by

RICHARD FARMAR,

At the Unicorn, in Second-ſtreet,

A Very large aſſortment of drugs and medicines. Likewiſe Bateman's drops, Britiſh oil, ſpirit of turpentine, phoſphorus, Stoughton's bitters, Daffy's elixir, Hungary-water, Turlington's balſam, Lockyer's pills, Godfrey's cordial, honey-water, hard varniſh, ſagoe, lancets, painters bruſhes, with colours for all ſorts of paintings, &c. ⊕ 10s. ABSENTED from the ſervice of Peter Ten Eick, living upon Rariton river, in the Jerſeys, a Dutch hir'd ſervant man, nam'd John Engle, of middle ſtature, well ſet, red faced, and ſpeaks bad Engliſh; he pretends to be a miller: His clothes cannot be deſcrib'd, tho' it is ſuppoſed they are of a lightiſh colour. He took with him from the ſaid Peter Ten Eick, on Sunday, the 28th of July, a black gelding, with a ſtar on his forehead, about 14 hands high, and branded on the near buttock DM in a piece. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid man in any goal, ſhall have Three Pounds reward; and if the horſe is taken up, and deliver'd to John Hambricht, at the White-horſe, in Cheſter county, to Henry Pawling, in Philadelphia county, or to ſaid Peter Ten Eick, there will be Forty Shillings paid by either of them.

He took with him a pair of large ſilver ſhoe and knee buckles.

To be SOLD,

A TRACT of land, in the county of Auguſta, in Virginia, near the Court-houſe, containing 562 acres, near 100 of which is rich choice meadow, well water'd, and the high land very good, and well timber'd. There is a good mill thereon, lately rebuilt, on a good ſtream. It was lately the property of Major John Pickinge. Whoever inclines to purchaſe, may know the terms, by applying to Thomas Lewis, ſurveyor, or to Mr. John Madiſon, clerk of the ſaid county, who are impower'd to act for SCRUTORES, bureaus, ſliding-preſſes, cheſts of drawers of various ſorts, breakfaſt tables, dining tables, tea tables, and card tables; alſo cabin tables and ſtools. Chairs of all ſorts; ſuch as ſettees, eaſy chairs, arm chairs, parlour chairs, chamber chairs, cloſe chairs, and couches, carv'd or plain; bedſteads and ſacking bottoms, clock caſes, corner cupboards, tea cheſts, tea boards, bottle boards, &c. &c. Likewiſe all ſorts of cabinet furniture, at reaſonable rates.

N. B. A great aſſortment of the above goods being ready made, after the neweſt faſhions, any perſon may be ſupplied immediately, or on very ſhort notice.

STRAY'D or ſtolen, but rather thought to be ſtolen, from John M'Micken, of Point No Point, on the ſixth day of July laſt, a dark bay mare, a natural pacer, ſix years old, about 13 hands high, a few white hairs in her forehead, has a ſmall neck, the hair hangs to the right-ſide, is low in Fleſh, no ſhoes on, very apt to ſhift in her pace if drove faſt, and has with her a likely year old mare colt, a bright bay, and paced naturally till of late, but is now more apt to trot than pace, and ſtill ſucks. Whoever brings the above mares to the ſubſcriber, or to Samuel Haſtings, ſhip carpenter in Front-ſtreet, Philadelphia, ſhall have Twenty Shillings reward; and if ſtolen, and the thief taken, ſo that he may be brought to juſtice, Forty Shillings, and reaſonable charges, paid by me

JOHN M'MICKEN.

RUN away on the 31ſt day of the Seventh Month, called July, from James Hicklin, of Chriſtiana hundred, New-Caſtle county, A native Iriſh ſervant girl, named Mary Neal, ſpeaks pretty good Engliſh, and at times ſpeaks loud and faſt, and may be perceived to ſtutter a little, of a ruddy complexion, pretty full breaſted, thick black buſhy hair, chunky and well-ſet, ſhort legs, and pretty thick: Took with her when ſhe went away, A new linſey petticoat, ſtriped purple and yellow, and a blue and white ſtrip'd petticoat, no gown, bare footed when ſhe went away, ſuppoſed to be about 20 years of age. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant Girl, ſo as her maſter may have her again, ſhall have Forty Shillings reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by

JAMES HICKLIN.

N. B. Perhaps ſhe may paſs by the name of O'Neal, but in her indenture ſhe is call'd Mary Neil or Neal, and may probably change her name and apparel. ☞

NOTICE is hereby given, that if Samuel Cox (who came from Byfield, in Northamptonſhire, in Old England, about three or four years ago, and went to live with one Thomas Meſſer, in Cheſter county, Pennſylvania) is alive, and applies to David Strattan, in Eveſham townſhip, Burlington county, in the Jerſeys, he may hear of ſomething greatly to his ſatisfaction: Or if he is dead, the perſon that informs ſaid Strattan thereof, or ſends word to the New-Printing-Office, in Philadelphia, ſhall be reaſonably ſatisfied for their trouble by me DAVID STRATTAN. ¶

RUN away from William M'Knight, of Upper Freehold, in the county of Monmouth, a High Dutch ſervant man, nam'd Baltus Spackholtz, of middle ſtature, about 25 years of age, ſpeaks bad Engliſh, pretends to be a miller, and has ſhort black hair: Had on when he went away a half worn felt hat, white linen ſhirt, blue coat, with red lining, blue veſt, light brown breeches, and black ſtockings. Whoever takes up ſaid ſervant, and ſecures him, ſo that his maſter may have him again, ſhall have Three Pounds reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by

WILLIAM M'KNIGHT.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

EXTRACTS from Doctor MAYHEW's SERMON, preach'd in the Audience of his Excellency WILLIAM SHIRLEY, Esq; Captain General, Governor and Commander in Chief; the Honourable His MAJESTY's Council; and the Honourable House of Representatives of the Province of the Massachusetts-Bay, in New-England, May 29, 1754, being the Anniversary for the Election of His MAJESTY's Council for the Province.

THAT which seems, at present, chiefly to engage the Attention of the Publick, is the British Settlements on the Continent being now, in a Manner, encompassed by the French. And this is a Matter of much more serious Importance than it would be, were it not for the numerous Tribes of warlike Natives on our Back; who, it is to be fear'd, are more generally disposed to fall in with that Interest, than with ours. The principal Reason of which is, doubtless, this; That our politic Neighbours take much more Pains to gain them over, than our Colonies have hitherto done. Nor can it be thought a Thing of less Importance for us, by all Means that are lawful and practicable, to secure the Friendship of the one, than it is to put a Stop to the Encroachments of the other. Indeed, whoever has the Friendship of most, or all, of these Natives, may probably, in Time, become Masters of this Part of the Continent. Whether we, or they who are now making such a resolute Push for it, Heaven knows!

The warlike Preparations that are made and making, in our Southern Colonies, prove that they are not unapprehensive of what may be the Consequence of those quick Advances, and gigantick Strides, which the French are making towards us; the Consequence of the strict Alliances they are forming with those Indians, who are already our Enemies; of their Endeavours to secure such as are yet Neuters; and of their Practices, and many Artifices, to corrupt those who are in Amity with us. We, surely, who have always distinguished ourselves by a Jealousy of our Rights; by our Loyalty; and our Zeal for the common Interest of His Majesty's Dominions on the Continent; We, surely, shall not be inattentive to these Commotions, nor inactive when the General Good, yea, the very Being, of all these Colonies is threaten'd. Shall not be inattentive and inactive, did I say? We are not, we cannot be. We see from the late Conduct of our Neighbours, from their recent Encroachments, and unprovok'd Hostilities (unless to breathe on our own Territories be a Provocation to such Men) we see from these Things, in what Manner all Controversies about Bounds and Limits are to be settled; how very amicably! Punic Faith! unless, perhaps, Gallic is become sufficiently proverbial. No One, that is not an absolute Stranger to their Ambition, to their Policy, to their Injustice, to their Perfidiousness, can be in any Doubt what they aspire at.

And, indeed, the Progress they have made in a short Time, might seem strange, were it not for their Union amongst themselves, and for the Nature of their Government. The Slaves are content to starve at Home, in order to injure Freemen Abroad, and to extend their Territories by Violence and Usurpation. Their late Conduct may well alarm us; especially considering our Disunion, or at least Want of a sufficient Bond of Union, amongst ourselves: An Inconvenience, which, it is to be hop'd, we shall not always labour under. And whenever all our scatter'd Rays shall be drawn to a Point and proper Focus, they can scarce fail to consume and burn up these Enemies of our Peace, how faintly soever they may strike at present. What UNION can do, we need only look towards those Provinces, which are distinguished by the Name of THE UNITED, to know. But, in the mean time, each Government that considers its own true Interest, will undoubtedly concur in such Measures as are necessary and practicable for the common Safety.

Our present Situation, my Fathers, calls to Mind that of the Tribes of Israel, surrounded and harrassed by their common Enemies, at a Time when they were under no common Direction. Then it was that "Judah said unto Simeon his Brother, Come up with me into my Lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I also will go up with thee into thy Lot; so Simeon went with him." Tho' Peace is very desirable, upon just and honourable Terms, yet we know very well, that God's antient People were not wont to be frighted out of their Possessions; nor patiently to endure the Incursions and Ravages of their Neighbours. And I am sure there is not a true New-England Man, whose Heart is not already engag'd in this Contest; and whose Purse, and his Arm also, if need be, is not ready to be employ'd in it; in a Cause so just in the Sight of God and Man; a Cause so necessary for our own Self-defence; a Cause wherein our Liberties, our Religion, our Lives, our Bodies, our Souls, are all so nearly concern'd. We have, indeed, of late done something to secure ourselves, and are doing more. We have put our Hand to the Plough; and he that looks back, is so far from being worthy the Privileges of a Citizen of Heaven, that he is not worthy to enjoy the Rights of an Englishman.

We are morally sure, from the Steps which our Neighbours are taking, that there must, sooner or later, be some great Turn of Affairs upon this Continent, which will put it out of our Power, or out of theirs, to dispute about Boundaries: We have heard their Threats, and insolent Menaces; we have seen their more insolent Behaviour. And what a Turn may be given to the Affairs of Europe, should Heaven permit Gallic Policy and Perfidy to prevail here over English Valour, I need not say, and even tremble to think! We are peaceably extending our Settlements upon our own Territories; they are extending theirs beyond their own, by Force of Arms. We must meet at length; which cannot be without a violent Concussion; and the Time seems not to be far off. In short, their Conduct must be very different from what it has all along been, especially of late, before we shall have any Reason to think, that we can live in Peace and good Neighbourhood with them, how much soever we may desire it. The Continent is not wide enough for us both; and they are resolv'd to have the Whole.---The Court of Versailles, for extending the French Dominions in America, hath ever adopted this Maxim, Divide et Impera; and, in pursuing it, hath stuck at no Measures of Perfidy*, or Violence, for rooting out their Neighbours.

And what horrid Scene is this, which restless, roving Fancy, or something of an higher Nature, presents to me; and so chills my Blood! Do I behold these Territories of Freedom, become the Prey of arbitrary Power? Do I see the motly Armies of French and painted Savages taking our Fortresses, and erecting their own, even in our Capital Towns and Cities! Do I behold them spreading Desolation thro' the land! Do I see the Slaves of Lewis, with their Indian Allies, dispossessing the Free-born Subjects of King GEORGE of the Inheritance receiv'd from their Forefathers, and purchased by them at the Expence of their Ease, their Treasure, their Blood! To aggravate the Indignity beyond human Toleration, do I see this goodly Patrimony ravish'd from them, by those who never knew what Property was, except by seizing that of others for an insatiable Lord! Do I see Christianity banish'd for Popery! the Bible for the Mass-book! the Oracles of Truth for fabulous Legends! Do I see the sacred Edifices erected here to the Honour of the true God, and his Son, on the Ruins of Pagan Superstition and Idolatry; erected here, where Satan's Seat was; do I see these sacred Edifices laid in Ruins themselves! and others rising in their Places, consecrated to the Honour of Saints and Angels! Instead of a Train of Christ's faithful, laborious Ministers, do I behold an Herd of lazy Monks, and Jesuits, and Exorcists, and Inquisitors, and cowl'd and uncowl'd Impostors! Do I see a Protestant there stealing a Look at his Bible, and, being taken in the Fact, punish'd like a Felon! What Indignity is yonder offer'd to the Matrons! and here to the Virgins! Is it now a Crime to reverence the hoary Head! And is he alone happy, that taketh the little Ones, and dasheth them against the Stones! Do I see all Liberty, Property, Religion, Happiness, chang'd, or rather transubstantiated, into Slavery, Poverty, Superstition, Wretchedness! And, in fine, do I hear the miserable Sufferers (those of them that survive) bitterly accusing the Negligence of the publick Guardians! and charging all their Calamities, less upon the Enemies, than upon the Fathers, of their Country! O dishoneſt! profane! execrable Sight! O piercing Sound! that entreth into the Ears of the Lord of Sabbaoth! Where! in what Region! in what World am I! Is this Imagination? (its own busy Tormentor) Or is it something more divine? I will not, I cannot believe 'tis prophetic Vision; or that God has so far abandon'd us!

And how different a Scene is now opening upon me, with clearer Indications of Truth and Reality! There, Insolence and Injustice punished! Here, "the Meek inheriting the Earth!" Liberty victorious! Slavery biting her own Chain! Pride brought down! Virtue exalted! Christianity triumphing over Imposture! And another Great-Britain rising in America! But I must not declare the Whole-----The Lord God omnipotent reigneth! just and true are all thy Ways, O thou King of Saints. And them that walk in Pride, thou art able to abase! "What has Pride profited! Or what Good hath Vaunting brought you," ye restless Disturbers of our Peace! What Good your Masses? your Relicks? your Crossings? your Ave Maria's? And to which of your Saints will ye now turn!

But we are not, my honoured Fathers, to presume on God's Protection, much less, on his giving us any signal Advantages over them that are ever either planing or executing Mischief against us, without using the proper Means for obtaining that Protection, and these Advantages. As the Apostle said to the Mariners, after assuring them of Deliverance from the impending Danger, Except these abide in the Ship, ye cannot be saved; so it may be said to our British Colonies, Ye cannot be saved from the Storm you are now threatened with, yea, which is already begun, except ye are at UNION AMONGST YOURSELVES; and exert your Strength together, for your common Interest. Upon this Condition, you are safe, even without a Miracle; otherwise, nothing short of one can save you. And can you, without the utmost Indignation, think of becoming a Prey to those who are so much inferior to you in all Respects, meerly for want of Unanimity, publick Spirit, the manly Resolution of your Fore-fathers, and a little Expence!-----

I speak now with particular Reference to the necessary Defence of this, and all these Colonies, against those who are making Inroads upon us; and who have, even within the Space of a few Weeks, had the Hardiness to commit such Hostilities as are not to be endured, unless we are determined to sit down in inglorious Ease, and patiently to look on, while our Trade with the Natives is ravished from us; our Fortresses taken; our Friends and Brethren captivated, butchered, scalped; our Fields laid waste; our Territories possessed by those that hate us; and the British Interest on the Continent brought to nothing. Peace is a great Blessing; Peace is what we would chuse; Peace is the Desire of all who deserve the Name of Christians. But shall the Trumpet sleep? Shall the Sword rust? Shall our Gold and Silver lie cankering in our Coffers? Shall our military Garments be Moth-eaten for want of Use, when such Things are doing! It is impossible, Gentlemen, you should be any ways backward, or parsimonious, in such a Cause as this; a Cause wherein the Glory of God, the Honour of your King, and the Good of your Country, are so deeply concerned; I might perhaps add, a Cause, whereon the Liberties of Europe depend. For of so great Consequence is the Empire of North America (and that, you are sensible, is the Thing now aimed at by our Neighbours) that it must turn the Scale of Power greatly in Favour of the only Monarch, from whom those Liberties are in Danger; and against that Prince, who is the grand Support and Bulwark of them. Consider then, Gentlemen, in the Name of God, consider, what you owe Him, and to your Holy Religion; what, to the Protestant Interest in general; what, to your King and to Great-Britain, in particular; what, to your native Country; what, to the Honour of your Ancestors; what, to the present Generation; what, to future Ones; what, to yourselves; and what, to those whom the God of Nature has made dearer to you than yourselves, your Children. It is even uncertain, Gentlemen, how long you will have an House to sit in, unless a speedy and vigorous Opposition is made to the present Encroachments, and to the farther Designs of our Enemies! This, surely, is not a Time to be saving, unless in our private Expences.

* One flagrant Instance of this, appears in the murderous Manner of Capt. Howe's being killed, in the Year 1750, at Chignecto, by a Party of Indians in the Interest, and under the Direction of the French, in Presence of Monsieur Le Corne, their Commandant, when he was received by them under the Protection of a Flag of Truce: For which Outrage, no other Cause can be assigned, than that he had distinguished himself by his Activity in the Service of his King and Country, against the Attempts of the French in those Parts.

By Captain King, from South-Carolina, we have the following Advices, viz.

BAYONNE, April 18.

By the last Letters from Spain, the Court is preparing all military Affairs as fast as possible. The Troops, Men of War, Artillery, and Magazines, are at this Time the only Objects of Attention and Orders. The Kingdoms of Catalonia and Valentia are full of Troops, and where they are designed for excites the Curiosity of the Publick. All the Forts from Roses to Malaga, and the Frontiers of Murcia, are in a State of War. The Magazines are well provided, Artillery and Ammunition are not wanting, of any Sort, along the Coasts of the Mediterranean; also Ships of Force, Frigates and Xebecks; but where they are destined for is a Doubt, except against Gibraltar or Port Mahone.

Madrid, April 16. Two French Frigates of 30 Guns each, bound from Brest to Toulon, lately put into Alicant, and only wait for a fair Wind to proceed on their Voyage. They have with them a large Vessel freighted with Powder, Cannon Balls, and Bombs.

April 23. The Court has sent Orders to the Marquis de la Mina, Governor and Captain General of Catalonia, to form as many Regiments of Militia in that Principality, as there are in the Kingdom of Castille.

Toulon, May 6. The Squadron fitted out here is now quite ready to put to Sea, but, it is thought, will not sail till towards the latter End of the Month.

Hague, May 25. An Express arrived from Brussels has brought Advice, That the famous Mr. William Van Haaren, has at length entirely adjusted the important and intricate Affair of the Barrier.

Vienna, May 11. The Court received lately an Express from Constantinople; but People vary much as to the Contents of the Dispatches.

Ratisbon, May 19. After Abundance of Difficulty, and Opposition, the Princes de la Tour Taxis, and Schwartsburg Rudolstadt, have been admitted into the College of Princes of the Empire.

LONDON, May 23.

Letters from the East Indies say, That the French, by their intriguing, have involved almost all the Dominions of the Great Mogul in a War, and have introduced Disturbances in several Parts of Persia.

May 25. There are several British Ships taking in German Passengers at Hamburgh, for his Majesty's American Plantations.

We learn from Genoa, that they are very anxious about the Sailing of certain Squadrons, and the Motions of certain Troops, which are conjectured to have in View the Island of Corsica; where the Malecontents have seized all the Genoese Estates, set a Price upon the Marquis Grimaldi's Head, and declared themselves a Free People. The Point is, to learn whether they have taken these Steps in Concert with any other Nation.

If his Majesty goes into Germany this Summer, it is said that there will be an Interview between him and the Kings of Denmark and Prussia, at Stetin, in Pomerania.

May 28. On Thursday last the Honourable Arthur Dobbs, Esq; received his Instructions and Charge, as Governor of North Carolina, for which Colony he will speedily embark.

Two Men of War's Tenders are arrived in Dublin Harbour, to enlist Seamen, or able bodied Land-men, for his Majesty's Service.

We are assured from various Parts of the Kingdom, that notwithstanding the continued Severity of the Weather this Spring, they have the most promising Hopes of as plentiful a Season, in all Respects, as ever was known.

France has contracted with Sweden for building four more Ships, each of which is to carry 45 Guns.

May 30. Yesterday Capt. Clive waited upon the Honourable the Directors of the East India Company, and was presented, by the Gentleman in the Chair, with a very rich Sword set with Diamonds.

It is said, That the Dutch have lately sent Orders to Surinam and Coracoa, directing, that all Vessels bound from thence shall be armed with a Force sufficient to oppose the Spanish Guarda Costas.

The French are said to have expended a prodigious Sum in the East Indies, to secure an Interest in the Seraglio of the Great Mogul, who is a weak irresolute Prince: His Firman is actually engaged as a Party in all their Transactions, by Influence of the Sieur Gaspard, an artful and an enterprizing Agent.

According to the last Advices from Stockholm, there seems to be some Design of very great Importance on the Carpet. The Speakers of the several Orders of the Diet are in that City. A considerable Body of Troops is forming in the Neighbourhood. The King's Equipage is actually preparing, as is said, for a new Tour into the Provinces. It looks as if they were preparing for some great Event, but of what Nature, or at what Distance, whether in Sweden, or some other Country, we must leave Time to discover.

They write from Vienna, that they expect, with great Impatience, an Account of what has passed lately at Constantinople, where somewhat extraordinary has fallen out, of which none but the Court has received any exact Information. Some say the Insurrection of the Janissaries was more considerable, than was represented in the last Express. Some say new Intrigues have been formed in the Seraglio against the Grand Vizir, the Aga of the Janissaries, and all the old Court. While others surmise (for in Truth it is no more) that Mohammed V. is deceased, in the 58th Year of his Age, and 24th of his Reign.

June 1. The following Promotions of Admirals are talked of, and it is thought will take Place soon after the Meeting of the Parliament, viz. Temple West, George Pocock, the Honourable George Townshend, and Savage Mostyn, Esquires; and that Charles Saunders, Esq; will succeed Mr. Mostyn as Comptroller of his Majesty's Navy.

The epidemic Distemper at Paris is somewhat abated, after having made very great Ravages in that Capital: Upwards of 30,000 Persons, more than usual, have, we hear, died in the Space of five Months.

Yesterday there were 330 Members of the Honourable House of Commons sworn in, and took their Seats accordingly.

The Affair of the Free Port, in Holland, will at length be concluded, with some Variations from the Scheme of the late Stadtholder; Zealand having complied with the Regulation.

Westminster, May 31. This Day the new Parliament met, and his Majesty's Commission, impowering his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, and several Lords therein named, to open and hold the said Parliament, was read in the Presence of the Houses

Houſes. And the Commons were directed to chooſe their Speaker, and to preſent him To-morrow to the Lords Commiſſioners.

Weſtminſter, June 1. This Day the two Houſes of Parliament having again met, the Commons preſented to the Lords Commiſſioners, the Right Honourable Arthur Onſlow, Eſq; whom they had choſen to be their Speaker: And the Lords Commiſſioners having, in his Majeſty's Name, approved their Choice, the Lord High Chancellor made a Speech to both Houſes, acquainting them, by his Majeſty's Command, "That his Majeſty has been pleaſed "to give them this early Opportunity of coming together, in or-"der that certain Parliamentary Proceedings may be gone through, "which his majeſty judges will be for the Satisfaction of his good "Subjects to have completed without Loſs of Time. And that "his Majeſty did not think proper now to lay before them any "Points of general Buſineſs, reſerving every Thing of that Nature "to the uſual Time of their aſſembling in the Winter."

London, June 3. We hear that his Majeſty's Ship the Arundel, Captain Lloyd, is ordered to ſail for Virginia with all Expedition.

June 4. On Friday Night Colonel George Waiſh arrived from Minorca, and will ſet out ſoon for Jamaica to take upon him the Command of the Regiment there, late Governor Trelawney's, of which he has been appointed Colonel.

The Agent for New-York has lately received Inſtructions about ſome extraordinary Proceedings with reſpect to that Colony.

We learn from Copenhagen, that ſeveral ſecret Councils have been held lately in the King's Preſence, which are ſuppoſed to reſpect the preſent critical State of Things in the North, as well as the approaching Encampment of the King's Forces.

We learn from Leghorn, that ſome Perſons arrived there from Coſica, report, That the Malecontents have lately received a very conſiderable Supply of Powder and Ammunition; and that they very confidently believe, in caſe a War breaks out in Italy, they ſhall be enabled to ſet up a Prince of their own.

There is the greateſt Reaſon imaginable to believe, that his Majeſty has taken a Reſolution to make a Viſit to his German Dominions this Summer, notwithſtanding the uſual Orders on ſuch Occaſions are not iſſued to his Domeſticks in general.

The Earl of Cheſterfield, it is ſaid, intends to pay a Viſit to the Court of Berlin, before he leaves Germany; a Piece of Intelligence that will afford large Scope to the Coffee-houſe Politicians.

It is reported that a very conſiderable Fleet will be ready this Summer as a Fleet of Obſervation.

It appears by Letters from Moſcow and Vienna, that the Members of the Northern Triple Alliance are uſing their utmoſt Endeavours to prevent Broils in Europe, at leaſt for this Summer; and that as ſoon as there may be a Proſpect of a laſting general Peace, they will make freſh Inſtances at the Hague, to get the States General to accede to the ſaid Alliance; which they think can be eaſily obtained, when no Danger ſeems to be at Hand.

The Feuds in Dublin have made that agreeable Place quite irkſome to an unintereſted Perſon; the People divide themſelves into Parties and Setts, and one is reſolved not to keep Company with the other; ſo that a Stranger often innocently renders himſelf obnoxious to both: The Claret continues as good as ever, but there is very little pleaſing Converſation.

June 6. Our laſt Letters from Hamburgh are full of political Conjectures, which it would be improper to repeat; it is ſufficient to ſay, they are grounded on the Motions in Sweden, Denmark and Pruſſia, which the Hamburgh Politicians think muſt have ſomething farther in View than to make the World ſtare.

Our Correſpondent at Paris acquaints us, That they are very attentive at Court to the Negotiation that is carrying on between Spain and Portugal; the rather, becauſe the former of thoſe Courts has of late affected an Air of Myſtery.

The Spaniards, we have been told, have marched four additional Regiments into the Neighbourhood of Gibraltar, and for ſome Time have dropt all Intercourſe with the Garriſon of that Fortreſs; and by the ſtrict Diſcipline they obſerve at their neareſt Forts or Look-outs, it appears they either are on the Point of executing ſome Scheme, or (which is not ſo probable) of diſappointing an Attack upon themſelves.

June 8. We learn from Stockholm, That they continue to recruit all the Regiments in the Pay of the Crown of Sweden with the utmoſt Diligence, and that ſome ſay the King will review theſe Forces ſeparately; while others rather incline to think the Troops will be encamped in a Body, that his Majeſty may ſee them at once.

According to private Letters from Prague, there has ſcarce been ſuch a Fire happened in Germany within the Memory of Man, as that which broke out in their City in the Night of the 17th, and continued, notwithſtanding all the Aſſiſtance that could be given, to burn more or leſs for ſix Days together. There are but Twenty-eight Houſes left ſtanding in the Jews Quarter, and in the adjacent Part of the City 136 were burnt down belonging to the Chriſtians. Some will have it that the Jews themſelves were the Authors of this Fire; but others think they are only unfortunate, and that, ſtripped as they are of Effects, it is hard to deprive them of Compaſſion alſo.

It is univerſally acknowledged, that the new Governor of North-Carolina is formed to improve and bleſs the People among whom he is gone to reſide, by reforming their Manners, extending their Trade, and farther, ſettling that vaſt Tract of improveable Country, which is ſo thinly inhabited; and if he ſhould ſtill encourage Diſcoveries either to the N. E. or N. W. he will meet with a Parcel of old experienced Seamen, who are capable of undergoing any Hardſhips, and willing to engage in any Enterprize that is attended with Profit.

Our Correſpondent at Paris aſſures us, that in one Week they received three Expreſſes from, and diſpatched two to Madrid; but that nothing tranſpires at Court as to the Contents of either. In his Poſtſcript he ſays, the Toulon Squadron is actually ſailed.

Charles Town, South Carolina, July 25.

By the laſt Veſſels from London, we learn, that the Society of Anti-Gallicans (of which Admiral Vernon is Preſident) have been pleaſed to expreſs great Pleaſure at the Cultivation of Indico in this Province, but more particularly at our late Improvements in the making of that valuable Commodity: And that they have reſolved to give a Præmium of Fifty Pounds Sterling, to the Maker of the largeſt Quantity of the beſt Indico manufactured here the enſuing Year.

Auguſt 15. By An Act of the General Aſſembly of this Province, paſſed the 9th Day of April, 1734, no Ships or other Veſſels uſing the Seas, are permitted to lie at, or within 100 Fathoms of, any of the Wharffs or Bridges before this Town, from the laſt Day of July, O. S. (now the 11th of Auguſt) to the 15th of September, O. S. (now the 26th,) which is that Space of Time we call the Hurricane Seaſon. Every Maſter of Veſſel not complying with which Act, forfeits £ 100.

By a Brig lately arrived from the Havannah, we have certain Advice, that the Spaniards have actually fitted out a large Squadron, from the Havannah, La Vera Cruz, Campeachy, Porto Rico, &c. conſiſting of a 36 Gun Ship, ſeveral Xebecks, Galleys, Snows, Brigs, and other Veſſels, with 3000 Land Forces on board, in order to make a vigorous Attack on, and expel, the Engliſh ſettled in the Bay of Honduras.

By a Gentleman, who came to Town this Morning, from Winyah, we are informed, that an Indian (ſuſpected to be one of thoſe from the Northward that formerly frequently came into this Province on bad Deſigns) came, a few Days ago, to the Houſe of one Mr. Atkinſon, in that Part of the Country, where he was treated in all Reſpects as a Friend, and behaved very well, till Mr. Atkinſon objected to his Lodging in his Houſe at Night; when the Indian inſiſted he would lodge there, and ſoon became ſo impertinent and unruly, as to increaſe Mr. Atkinſon's Suſpicion of him, who thereupon (after adviſing with one of his Neighbours) ſecured and put him on board one of the Coaſting Schooners at George-Town, to be brought hither: He pretended to a Cherokee, and ſaid he had juſt parted from ſix other Cherokees; and ſet up the War-Whoop as ſoon as he found himſelf going to be ſecured.

A N N A P O L I S, Auguſt 15.

We are now every Day raiſing Recruits to go againſt the French at the Ohio.

Auguſt 22. The Voluntiers who have enliſted, or ſhall enliſt, in this Province, to defend his Majeſty's Rights on the Ohio, will be entitled to all the Advantages mentioned in the Governor of Virginia his Proclamation.

Halifax, in Nova-Scotia, Auguſt 3.

Laſt Saturday his Majeſty's Ship Succeſs, Capt. Rous, arrived here in 6 Weeks from England, appointed for this Station: She brings Word that Capt Bali, with the Cloathing for the three Regiments, and another Ship with Ordnance Stores for this Place, were to ſail in a few Days after him.

By Capt. Rous we have Advice, that the Hon. Jonathan Belcher, Eſq; appointed Chief Judge of this Province, was not arrived from Ireland when he ſail'd, but was daily expected, and 'tis thought will take his Paſſage either in Capt. Ball or the Store-ſhip.

Yeſterday Capt. Thomas Martin arrived here in about 6 Weeks from London: He informs us, That about three Weeks ago, in a Calm, he met with a dead Whale floating upon the Water, with four Harpoons in him, two of which they took and ſaved, and about ſixty Fathom of Line; they afterwards bent the End of a Cable to him, with which they tow'd him for 14 Days, but on Wedneſday laſt, meeting with a ſevere Gale of Wind, in which they carried away their Fore-top-Maſt, Main Stay, and receiv'd ſome other Damage, they were obliged to let him go adrift again.

N E W - Y O R K, Auguſt 26.

We hear that the General Aſſembly of this Province, have (at their preſent Sitting) voted the Sum of Five Thouſand Pounds Currency, to be immediately ſent to the Virginians, in order to enable them to extirpate our well-known Friends the French, from the Frontiers of that and the neighbouring Provinces.

Capt. Carliſle arrived here laſt Monday from Jamaica, in 19 Days: On the 7th Inſtant, under Crooked Iſland, he ſpoke with the Ship Elizabeth, Capt. Grant, from Jamaica for London, who had been out 12 Days: The 14th he ſpoke with Capt. Johnſon, from Jamaica for Rhode-Iſland, who had been out 54 Days: And the 17th he ſpoke with a Brig from Jamaica for Rhode-Iſland, which had been then out ſeven Weeks. The Ship John, Capt. Coffey, from hence for Jamaica, was ſeen going into Kingſton as Capt. Carliſle came out.

By Letters from Jamaica, we are informed, that Parties run high, between the Inhabitants of Spaniſh-town, and the Inhabitants of Kingſton, the Governor ſiding with the latter: That one of the Judges had been lately indicted by the Attorney General, for holding a Court of Niſi prius without a Commiſſion; but that it was quaſh'd by the Bench:---That the Judges of the Grand Court having again ordered Courts of Niſi prius to be held in the ſeveral Counties in the Iſland, the Governor had iſſued his Proclamation, ſtrictly forbidding the Holding any ſuch Courts, in a Manner contrary to the Prerogative of the Crown; and that in the Diſpute, one Attorney-General had been ſuſpended, and another put in his Stead.

We hear from Albany, that about a Fortnight ago, ſix Canoes with Utawawa Indians, arrived there. They give out, that they had been at Canada, where the French Commandant had offered them the Axe, and deſired them to go againſt Saraghtoga; but that they had refuſed him, and told him they had already ſhed too much Engliſh Blood, and would continue at Peace with the Engliſh, unleſs they ſhould offer to attack Crown Point, which if they did, they would then take up the Axe againſt them.

We hear from Paramus, in Eaſt-Jerſey, that on the Night of the 16th Inſtant, it rained, without the leaſt Intermiſſion, for upwards of three Hours, and that a greater Quantity fell in that Space of Time, than ever was known in the Memory of the oldeſt Man now living there. A ſmall Freſh Water Stream having overflowed its Bank to ſuch a Degree, that by the Impetuoſity of the Torrent, 30 Yards of a ſmall Hill, 60 Feet in Height, was entirely waſhed away; many large Trees forc'd up by the Roots, and carried away likewiſe, ſeveral Rocks were moved to an incredible Diſtance from the proper Courſe of the River. A Saw-Mill belonging to John Hoppe, with his Dwelling-Houſe, was carried away. A little lower down, on the ſame Creek, the Houſe of Jacob Tilſort was carried away alſo; the Family with the greateſt Difficulty ſaved their Lives, by getting out at the Windows by the Help of a Ladder. The Improvements of Mr. Kingſland, on the ſame River, it is ſaid, has ſuffered much, and not without ſome Danger did he ſave the Lives of his Wife and Children, for they were ſcarcely got over a ſmall Bridge they had to croſs, before it went to Pieces; after which, he was obliged to go into his Houſe in a Canoe, in order to ſave his Account Books, which he happily effected, but not without being in very imminent Danger. Many Horſes, Cows, &c. were drowned, Hendrick Hoppe having loſt 9 of the former, and 8 of the latter. In ſhort, the Loſs is incredible, and muſt undoubtedly amount to ſome Thouſands, for many Places in the Low Lands were 10 Feet under Water, where none was ever known to have been before.

PHILADELPHIA, Auguſt 29.

Laſt Week an Expreſs arriv'd here from Auchwick, with Advice, that 300 Indians, Men, Women and Children, were arriv'd there from the Obio, being drove off by the French, and had demanded Protection and Proviſion from this Government; and we hear Orders are accordingly ſent for their Support. It is ſaid 200 more were ſoon expected at Auchwick, on this Side the Mountains.

Captain Low, from Barbados, in Latitude 32, 20, ſpoke with Captain Collins in a Schooner, bound to New-London from that Iſland, on the tenth Inſtant: And on the fifteenth with a Sloop, Captain Miles, from Anguilla, alſo for New-London; likewiſe with Captain Fitzgerald from Boſton, who had been a Whaling 28 Days, but had met with no Succeſs.

By Captain Rees, from Jamaica, we are inform'd of the Arrival there of the Brigantine Jenny, Captain Alexander Magee, from this Port; and of Captain White, from New-York.

From Fyall we have an Account of the Durſley Galley, Captain Hamilton, belonging here, having been there, and was ſail'd for Liſbon.

The Schooner Enterprize, Captain Baddely, is arriv'd at Coarlſe-Town, in South-Carolina, from this Place; as is the Sloop Harriot, Captain Borland, from Boſton: And the Spy, Captain Evans, is ſail'd from thence for Boſton.

 The Perſon that left the Piece at the New-Printing-Office, ſign'd Buckram in Armour, is deſir'd to call for it, and the Money therewith ſent, as it will not be printed, there being no Name to it, and the Publiſhers are well aſſur'd, it was not wrote by the Author of the Epilogue lately burleſqu'd.

The Piece ſign'd Philanthropos, may be expected in our next.
